Quiz Analysis

185 questions from the Quiz PDF (42 pages, 13 assignments: Week 0–12). Status: 172 Verified · 13 Needs verification · 0 Unreadable.

STATUS LABELS

Verified: the accepted answer is shown on the portal screenshot and a supporting passage was found in the course book (or confirmed on review). Needs verification: answer is readable on the screenshot but the book passage could not be confirmed automatically. Unreadable: not reliably readable. "Accepted answer" is the portal's answer; "Selected response" is the option ticked in the screenshot.

Assignments: Week 0 Week 1 Week 2 Week 3 Week 4 Week 5 Week 6 Week 7 Week 8 Week 9 Week 10 Week 11 Week 12

Week 0 Assignment (PDF pp. 1–1, 5 questions)

Needs verification W0Q1 · PDF p.1 · MCQ

In teamwork, the most important soft skill is:

A. Dominating discussions

B. Clear communication and collaboration

C. Working independently without input

D. Avoiding conflict at all costs

Accepted answer: Clear communication and collaboration
Selected response: Clear communication and collaboration (score 1/1)
Week/Lecture: Sample set (unnumbered) · L40 Group Communication
Concept: Soft skills in teamwork
Book support: Lecture 40, printed p.650 (PDF p.651): "...Binod Mishra Department of Humanities & Social Sciences Indian Institute of Technology, Roorkee Lecture – 40 Group Communication Skills Good morning friends, this is Binod Mishra, and you are listening to online lectures on Soft Skills. Today, we are going to talk about group communication skills...."
Note: Sample question outside the numbered weeks; the book stresses cooperation in teams (Lecture 40) but does not rank soft skills this way. Answer is consistent with general soft-skills teaching.

Verified W0Q2 · PDF p.1 · MCQ

Which of the following is an example of non-verbal communication?

A. Sending an email

B. Speaking in a meeting

C. Maintaining eye contact and body posture

D. Writing a report

> Accepted answer: Maintaining eye contact and body posture
> Selected response: Maintaining eye contact and body posture (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Sample set (unnumbered) · L9 Communicating Without Words
> Concept: Non-verbal communication
> Book support: Lecture 9, printed p.135 (PDF p.136): "...Then personal appearance, then facial expressions, then eye contact then posture and then gesture. All these comprise kinesics...."

Verified W0Q3 · PDF p.1 · MCQ

Emotional intelligence primarily involves:

A. High IQ and technical knowledge

B. Recognizing and managing one's own emotions and those of others

C. Memorizing facts quickly

D. Avoiding emotional situations altogether

> Accepted answer: Recognizing and managing one's own emotions and those of others
> Selected response: Recognizing and managing one's own emotions and those of others (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Sample set (unnumbered) · L59 Emotional Intelligence and Critical Thinking
> Concept: Emotional intelligence
> Book support: Lecture 59, printed p.991 (PDF p.992): "...So, emotional intelligence is a sort of ability or a sort of capacity to reorganize our feelings and also those of others. It does not talk only about our feelings, but it also talks about others feelings for motivating ourselves, and for managing emotions well in ourselves and in our relationships...."

Needs verification W0Q4 · PDF p.1 · MCQ

Which of the following is an example of positive body language?

A. Crossing arms and avoiding eye contact

B. Looking at your phone while someone speaks

C. Smiling and maintaining open posture

D. Frowning during discussions

> Accepted answer: Smiling and maintaining open posture
> Selected response: Smiling and maintaining open posture (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Sample set (unnumbered) · L9 Communicating Without Words
> Concept: Positive body language
> Book support: Lecture 9, printed p.136 (PDF p.137): "...Majority of people they cannot hide as Freud says they cannot hide their body language. If they are lying that is written on the face you will come across several situations, now take for example, a small child when the child starts lying, what the child usually does is he actually puts his hands in the pocket...."
> Note: Not stated verbatim in the book; the answer follows from the non-verbal communication lectures (eye contact, posture).

Needs verification W0Q5 · PDF p.1 · True/False

A leader who motivates the team by recognizing achievements is demonstrating empathy and positive reinforcement.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: True
> Selected response: True (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Sample set (unnumbered) · L41 Leadership Skills
> Concept: Leadership and motivation
> Book support: Lecture 41, printed p.680 (PDF p.681): "...So, these are some of the differences; you know the world as we have been saying in several lectures is a junction of people from different cultures and these people have different faiths, hence, their leadership style also will be different, but then since we are going to work in a globalized world, we have to practice some amo..."
> Note: Not stated verbatim; consistent with Lecture 41 (motivating, empathetic leadership).

Week 1 Assignment (PDF pp. 3–5, 15 questions)

Verified W1Q1 · PDF p.3 · MCQ

Hearing is a physiological activity, whereas listening is a _____ one.

A. mental

B. physical

C. social

D. psychological

> Accepted answer: mental
> Selected response: psychological (score 0/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 1 · L2 Aspects of Soft Skills, L14 Listening Skills
> Concept: Hearing vs listening
> Book support: Lecture 14, printed p.213 (PDF p.214): "...Hearing is only a physiological activity. Around you so many things happen so many sounds are there you hear then, but you do not concentrate on them while listening is totally a mental one...."

Verified W1Q2 · PDF p.3 · MCQ

The system of personality that operates on the pleasure principle and represents the true psychic reality is the _____.

A. ego

B. superego

C. id

D. creative self

> Accepted answer: id
> Selected response: id (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 1 · L5 Personality Development
> Concept: Freud's theory of personality
> Book support: Lecture 5, printed p.74 (PDF p.75): "...It operates through a pleasure principle and this pleasure principle, when you want to attain something through ID, you will find it actually does not distinguish between what is right and what is wrong. It actually acts according to the pre-pleasure principle and for this pleasure principle, it takes 2 actions the one action is..."

Verified W1Q3 · PDF p.3 · MCQ

In the six thinking hats technique, the hat associated with generating ideas is the _____.

A. yellow hat

B. green hat

C. blue hat

D. white hat

> Accepted answer: green hat
> Selected response: green hat (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 1 · L2 Aspects of Soft Skills
> Concept: De Bono's Six Thinking Hats
> Book support: Lecture 2, printed p.35 (PDF p.36): "...When one wears yellow, he is having a positive mindset and when one is wearing green, this is actually generating ideas and when one wears blue hat it is just to control the situation. Now, the question is when you are in a critical situation, you should try the 6 thinking hats' technique in order to get a more creative and more..."

Verified W1Q4 · PDF p.3 · MCQ

The word "personality" is derived from the Latin word persona, meaning _____.

A. mind

B. mask

C. mimesis

D. personal

> Accepted answer: mask
> Selected response: mask (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 1 · L5 Personality Development
> Concept: Meaning of personality
> Book support: Lecture 5, printed p.70 (PDF p.71): "...The word personality derives from the Latin word that is persona, and which means mask. Everyone you will find wears a mask...."

Verified W1Q5 · PDF p.3 · MCQ

The shared background of experience between a sender and a receiver, essential for successful communication, is called the:

A. common frame of reference

B. feedback loop

C. communication channel

D. grapevine

> Accepted answer: common frame of reference
> Selected response: common frame of reference (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 1 · L3 Effective Communication Skills
> Concept: Frame of reference in communication
> Book support: Lecture 3, printed p.43 (PDF p.44): "...Because your friend had the same sort of experience, had the same age and had the same knowledge, because for any effective communication success can be ensured based on the age, experience, tastes, likes and dislikes of our listener. Thus, in any communication there has to be a common frame of reference...."

Verified W1Q6 · PDF p.4 · MCQ

A recruiter would rather hire a candidate with a pleasant smile and good communication skills than one who has:

A. a foreign degree

B. a very good CGPA but is doing nothing

C. several years of work experience

D. strong technical certifications

> Accepted answer: a very good CGPA but is doing nothing
> Selected response: a very good CGPA but is doing nothing (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 1 · L1 Introduction to Soft Skills
> Concept: Importance of soft skills in hiring
> Book support: Lecture 1, printed p.13 (PDF p.14): "...It is very pertinent to say what a famous recruiter one said and that will give you a lot of clue about the need of the recruiters as well as the need of the organizations what the recruiter said was: "I would love to hire a girl with pleasant smile and better communication skills than one having a very good CGPA and doing nothi..."

Verified W1Q7 · PDF p.4 · MCQ

The word "communication" derives from the Latin word communicare, which means:

A. To speak

B. To share

C. To inform

D. To persuade

> Accepted answer: To share
> Selected response: To share (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 1 · L3 Effective Communication Skills
> Concept: Meaning of communication
> Book support: Lecture 3, printed p.41 (PDF p.42): "...To communicate, then, means to express an idea, desire or expectations. Communication is a Latin word and the word means, the Latin word is communicators or communicare which means to share...."

Verified W1Q8 · PDF p.4 · MCQ

"Grapevine" in organisational communication refers to:

A. A forward upward channel of communication

B. An informal channel that may be rumor-based and not always authentic

C. External communication with government agencies

D. Communication through company websites and pamphlets

> Accepted answer: An informal channel that may be rumor-based and not always authentic
> Selected response: An informal channel that may be rumor-based and not always authentic (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 1 · L20 Organizational Communication
> Concept: Grapevine (informal channel)
> Book support: Lecture 20, printed p.318 (PDF p.319): "...I mean casual chatting sometimes grapevine as we have discussed that this is an informal channel where people make a lot of whisperings, people make a lot of talk because this gives them a sort of satisfaction. Because this is one scope for them to in a way either to say something which may at times be rumors, but sometimes that..."

Verified W1Q9 · PDF p.4 · MCQ

Approximately what percentage of one's time (in any job) is spent in listening?

A. 30-40 percent

B. 40-50 percent

C. 60-75 percent

D. 80-90 percent

> Accepted answer: 60-75 percent
> Selected response: 40-50 percent (score 0/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 1 · L2 Aspects of Soft Skills
> Concept: Time spent listening
> Book support: Lecture 2, printed p.30 (PDF p.31): "...Why I am bent upon making people listen well is because 60 to 75 percent of your time, whatever job you are in, is a spent in listening. 30..."

Verified W1Q10 · PDF p.4 · MCQ

Extracting meaning from a received message (receiver's task) is:

A. Code

B. Interpreting

C. Encode

D. Decode

> Accepted answer: Decode
> Selected response: Decode (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 1 · L3 Effective Communication Skills
> Concept: Encoding and decoding
> Book support: Lecture 3, printed p.47 (PDF p.48): "...So, see to it that while you are formulating, the message is clear and it is clarity that is very important. So, if the message is clear, naturally, it would be extracted well by the receiver...."

Verified W1Q11 · PDF p.5 · MSQ

Which of the following are behavioural soft skills? (Select all that apply)

A. Self-awareness

B. Technical competence

C. Persistence

D. Knowledge

> Accepted answer: Self-awareness | Persistence
> Selected response: Self-awareness | Persistence (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 1 · L1 Introduction to Soft Skills
> Concept: Behavioural soft skills
> Book support: Lecture 1, printed p.10 (PDF p.11): "...Then comes flexibility and then comes persistence and perseverance. As I said earlier that soft skills are actually life skills, people skills, behavioral skills, and we can keep them under an umbrella term...."

Verified W1Q12 · PDF p.5 · MSQ

Which of the following are part of the Seven Cs of effective communication? (Select all that apply)

A. Crispness

B. Conciseness

C. Creativity

D. Courtesy

> Accepted answer: Conciseness | Courtesy
> Selected response: Conciseness | Courtesy (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 1 · L3 Effective Communication Skills
> Concept: Seven Cs of communication
> Book support: Lecture 3, printed p.48 (PDF p.49): "...Moreover, also see to it that in order to make it clear, do not be too long, do not use sentences which are too longer, you know conciseness is the hallmark of communication. Be concise, use small sentences, but be specific...."

Verified W1Q13 · PDF p.5 · MSQ

According to De Bono's Six Thinking Hats technique, which of the following hat-function pairings are correct? (Select all that apply)

A. White hat - seeing things objectively

B. Red hat - generating ideas

C. Yellow hat - fighting against and preventing mistakes

D. Blue hat - organising and controlling the thought process

> Accepted answer: White hat - seeing things objectively | Blue hat - organising and controlling the thought process
> Selected response: White hat - seeing things objectively | Blue hat - organising and controlling the thought process (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 1 · L2 Aspects of Soft Skills
> Concept: De Bono's Six Thinking Hats
> Book support: Lecture 2, printed p.35 (PDF p.36): "...And there are times when we are unable to solve the problems and for that let us refer to De Bono's 6 thinking; hats technique where it is said that when all these 6 people wear different hats and the color of the hats actually generate different sorts of ideas. For example, if one wears white hat, one sees things objectively i..."

Verified W1Q14 · PDF p.5 · MSQ

Which of the following statements about Freud's theory of personality are correct? (Select all that apply)

A. The Id operates through the Reality Principle

B. The Ego is the executive of the personality and organised portion of the Id

C. The Superego strives for perfection rather than pleasure

D. The Superego opposes only the Id, but supports the Ego

> Accepted answer: The Ego is the executive of the personality and organised portion of the Id | The Superego strives for perfection rather than pleasure
> Selected response: The Ego is the executive of the personality and organised portion of the Id | The Superego strives for perfection rather than pleasure (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 1 · L5 Personality Development
> Concept: Freud's id, ego and superego
> Book support: Lecture 5, printed p.77 (PDF p.78): "...The Superego strives for perfection rather than pleasure. While we found that the ID believed in the pleasure principle and the ego believed in the realistic principle through realistic thinking the Superego actually believes in perfection...."

Verified W1Q15 · PDF p.5 · Match the columns

Match the concept with the correct thinker/source.

Column A	Column B
P. "Truth springs from argument amongst friends"	1. Swami Vivekananda
Q. "Arise, awake, and stop not till the goal is reached"	2. Alfred Adler
R. Fictional Finalism & Striving for Superiority	3. David Hume
S. Id, Ego and Superego	4. Sigmund Freud

A. P-3, Q-1, R-2, S-4

B. P-1, Q-3, R-4, S-2

C. P-3, Q-1, R-4, S-2

D. P-2, Q-1, R-3, S-4

> Accepted answer: P-3, Q-1, R-2, S-4
> Selected response: P-3, Q-1, R-2, S-4 (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 1 · L1 Introduction to Soft Skills, L2 Aspects of Soft Skills, L3 Effective Communication Skills, L4 Classification of Communication, L5 Personality Development
> Concept: Thinkers and theories of personality
> Book support: Lecture 1, printed p.22 (PDF p.23): "...But for all that what you need to tell yourself, as Swami Vivekananda, had taken a Mantra and the Mantra is and all of you should go with the mantra "Arise, awake, and stop not till the goal is reached". Dear friends, in your case when you arise, you become self-aware, when you awake you become self confident and when you do no..."

Week 2 Assignment (PDF pp. 7–9, 15 questions)

Verified W2Q1 · PDF p.7 · MCQ

In the glass-of-water example, a person who says the glass is "half empty" is described as:

A. An optimist

B. A pessimist

C. An introvert

D. An extrovert

> Accepted answer: A pessimist
> Selected response: A pessimist (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 2 · L6 Positive Thinking
> Concept: Positive thinking
> Book support: Lecture 6, printed p.83 (PDF p.84): "...This actually differentiates the two types of person, the one who says the glass is half empty is actually a pessimist. The one he says the glass is half full is optimist...."

Verified W2Q2 · PDF p.7 · MCQ

According to Dr. Eric Berne, the attitude "I'm okay, you are okay" represents a person who is:

A. Imposing

B. Negative

C. Positive and cooperative

D. Introverted

> Accepted answer: Positive and cooperative
> Selected response: Positive and cooperative (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 2 · L6 Positive Thinking
> Concept: Berne's life positions (transactional analysis)
> Book support: Lecture 6, printed p.86 (PDF p.87): "...And that is possible only when we come with a sort of attitude where we can say, I am okay, you are okay. Now, this is, this sort of a person is not only positive, but he is co-operative...."

Verified W2Q3 · PDF p.7 · MCQ

According to Mehrabian, the percentage of communication that is verbal is:

A. 7%

B. 35%

C. 38%

D. 55%

> Accepted answer: 7%
> Selected response: 7% (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 2 · L9 Communicating Without Words
> Concept: Mehrabian's 7-38-55 rule
> Book support: Lecture 9, printed p.127 (PDF p.128): "...At the same time another anthropologist Mehrabian, says something more. He moves one step ahead and says it is only 7 percent that is verbal, 38 percent is vocal and the remaining is nonverbal...."

Verified W2Q4 · PDF p.7 · MCQ

Which voice fault results from the inflammation of the larynx and usually needs a speech therapist?

A. Throatiness

B. Breathiness

C. Nasalization

D. Hoarseness

> Accepted answer: Hoarseness
> Selected response: Hoarseness (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 2 · L10 Paralanguage
> Concept: Voice faults
> Book support: Lecture 10, printed p.153 (PDF p.154): "...Of course, the last one which is hoarseness and which results out of inflammation of larynx, this actually is the result of a medical problem and for that you need to consult a speech therapist or people who are specialized in terms of voice. And you can have you can consult them and can find the best remedy...."

Verified W2Q5 · PDF p.7 · MCQ

In the Johari Window, the region representing information that is unknown by the person but known by others is the:

A. Open area

B. Blind area

C. Hidden area

D. Unknown area

> Accepted answer: Blind area
> Selected response: Blind area (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 2 · L6 Positive Thinking
> Concept: Johari Window
> Book support: Lecture 6, printed p.90 (PDF p.91): "...Johari Window, here you will find that there are 4 window panes, and when a person as I said, joins a new group and the Johari windows forms 4 parts, which are called 4 areas, it has actually been divided into 4 quadrants, 4 areas or 4 regions. So, there is first is the open self, then is the blind self, then is the hidden self,..."

Needs verification W2Q6 · PDF p.8 · MCQ

Which of the following is not listed as a feature of telephonic communication?

A. Clarity

B. Courtesy

C. Brevity

D. Confrontation

> Accepted answer: Confrontation
> Selected response: Confrontation (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 2 · L7 Telephonic Communication Skills Part I
> Concept: Features of telephonic communication
> Book support: Lecture 7, printed p.106 (PDF p.107): "...telephonic communication though we have very short time, but yet we can establish it in the beginning. It is always better to sacrifice little courtesies I say, How are you?..."
> Note: The book (Lecture 7) discusses clarity, courtesy and brevity on the phone; "confrontation" is not listed, so the answer is by elimination.

Verified W2Q7 · PDF p.8 · MCQ

Teleconferencing is generally considered ineffective for which of the following purposes?

A. Connecting geographically dispersed people

B. Negotiations

C. Arranging meetings at short notice

D. Saving travel costs

> Accepted answer: Negotiations
> Selected response: Negotiations (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 2 · L8 Telephonic Communication Skills Part II
> Concept: Teleconferencing
> Book support: Lecture 8, printed p.121 (PDF p.122): "...When we talk about teleconferencing, of course it is a facility, but then it appears as an alternative, but you cannot take a decision based on that, since you are not able to read the facial reactions of the people and hence, it becomes very ineffective when we talk about negotiations and all. There is also a very limited scope..."

Verified W2Q8 · PDF p.8 · Fill-in-the-blank

The change in pitch produced by the vibration of the vocal cords is called _____.

A. Intonation

B. Articulation

C. Inflection

D. Modulation

> Accepted answer: Inflection
> Selected response: Intonation (score 0/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 2 · L10 Paralanguage
> Concept: Paralanguage: pitch and inflection
> Book support: Lecture 10, printed p.159 (PDF p.160): "...Our vocal cords as I have said earlier, they vibrate in the production of change. In the production of sounds they actually change and these pitch changes they are called inflections...."

Verified W2Q9 · PDF p.8 · Fill-in-the-blank

Voice mail acts as a substitute to short memos and phone calls and helps solve _____ difficulties.

A. Special zone

B. Time zone

C. Communication zone

D. Talk zone

> Accepted answer: Time zone
> Selected response: Time zone (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 2 · L8 Telephonic Communication Skills Part II
> Concept: Voice mail
> Book support: Lecture 8, printed p.115 (PDF p.116): "...Hence, the voice mail facility is a facility which can substitute short memos and short phone calls. At the same time, it can also solve the time zone difficulties, some messages very important, but at the same time, it is not possible to reach a person...."

Verified W2Q10 · PDF p.8 · MSQ

Which two of the following are listed as ways to develop positivism? (Select all that apply)

A. Believe in your abilities

B. Imitate others completely

C. Concentrate on your goals

D. Hide your weaknesses permanently

> Accepted answer: Believe in your abilities | Concentrate on your goals
> Selected response: Believe in your abilities | Concentrate on your goals (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 2 · L6 Positive Thinking
> Concept: Developing positive thinking
> Book support: Lecture 6, printed p.88 (PDF p.89): "...So, believe in your own abilities. Of course, everyone cannot be having all sorts of skills in him or her, but at the same time through situations, through opportunities, through different challenges, through interfaces one can often enhance one's skills...."

Verified W2Q11 · PDF p.9 · MSQ

While sending a call, which two of the following guidelines should be followed? (Select all that apply)

A. Recline in your chair

B. Place your own call

C. Plan an agenda

D. Avoid identifying yourself

> Accepted answer: Place your own call | Plan an agenda
> Selected response: Place your own call | Plan an agenda (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 2 · L7 Telephonic Communication Skills Part I
> Concept: Telephone etiquette: making a call
> Book support: Lecture 7, printed p.105 (PDF p.106): "...Hence, it is better to plan your call in advance and have an agenda. While you are planning an agenda and while you are sending a call, it is better to introduce yourself...."

Verified W2Q12 · PDF p.9 · MSQ

Which two statements about voice mail are correct? (Select all that apply)

A. It provides immediate, specific feedback

B. It acts as a substitute to short memos and phone calls

C. It solves time-zone difficulties

D. It increases interoffice paperwork

> Accepted answer: It acts as a substitute to short memos and phone calls | It solves time-zone difficulties
> Selected response: It acts as a substitute to short memos and phone calls | It solves time-zone difficulties (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 2 · L8 Telephonic Communication Skills Part II
> Concept: Voice mail
> Book support: Lecture 8, printed p.115 (PDF p.116): "...Hence, the voice mail facility is a facility which can substitute short memos and short phone calls. At the same time, it can also solve the time zone difficulties, some messages very important, but at the same time, it is not possible to reach a person...."

Verified W2Q13 · PDF p.9 · MSQ

Which of the following points highlight the importance of telephonic communication? (Select all that apply)

A. Provides immediate face-to-face feedback

B. Allows reading of facial expressions

C. Bridges time and distance gaps

D. Entails low cost

> Accepted answer: Bridges time and distance gaps | Entails low cost
> Selected response: Bridges time and distance gaps | Entails low cost (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 2 · L7 Telephonic Communication Skills Part I
> Concept: Importance of telephonic communication
> Book support: Lecture 7, printed p.100 (PDF p.101): "...It can actually save us from the hazards of the journey and not only can it save your time, but it can also help us inform each other in a short time and at a low cost. Hence, telephonic communication today has become vital and telephonic communication has not only become vital rather it has become the summum bonum of our life...."

Verified W2Q14 · PDF p.9 · MSQ

Which two of the following are described as characteristics of voice? (Select all that apply)

A. Volume

B. Grammar

C. Pitch

D. Vocabulary

> Accepted answer: Volume | Pitch
> Selected response: Volume | Pitch (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 2 · L10 Paralanguage
> Concept: Characteristics of voice
> Book support: Lecture 10, printed p.158 (PDF p.159): "...He does not bring the change in his volume. He does not bring the change by creating certain ups and downs in his voice...."

Needs verification W2Q15 · PDF p.9 · Match the columns

Match the hand movement/gesture in Column A with the emotion or meaning it symbolises in Column B.

Column A	Column B
1. Limp / hanging hands	P. Trust, interest
2. Open hands	Q. Determination, anger
3. Clenched hands	R. Boredom
4. Fists	S. Tension and frustration

A. 1-P, 2-R, 3-S, 4-Q

B. 1-R, 2-P, 3-S, 4-Q

C. 1-R, 2-S, 3-P, 4-Q

D. 1-Q, 2-P, 3-R, 4-S

> Accepted answer: 1-R, 2-P, 3-S, 4-Q
> Selected response: 1-R, 2-P, 3-S, 4-Q (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 2 · L9 Communicating Without Words
> Concept: Hand gestures (kinesics)
> Book support: Lecture 9, printed p.145 (PDF p.146): "...But then clenched hands--- they symbolize that you are under a state of tension and frustration. Somebody, you will find you might have been watching several movies and plays and dramas and all...."
> Note: Limp hands = boredom, open hands = welcome/trust and clenched hands = tension/frustration are in Lecture 9; fists = determination/anger is not confirmed in the text (by elimination).

Week 3 Assignment (PDF pp. 11–13, 15 questions)

Verified W3Q1 · PDF p.11 · MCQ

The term "proxemics" is derived from which word?

A. Property

B. Proximity

C. Procedure

D. Proportion

> Accepted answer: Proximity
> Selected response: Proximity (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 3 · L11 Proxemics
> Concept: Proxemics
> Book support: Lecture 11, printed p.168 (PDF p.169): "...The word Proxemics comes from proximity which actually means nearness of space that is why, you most often find that Proxemics can be understood better in terms of behavioral norm which manifests in communication and that is why, we also call spatial relationship as relationship communication. So, Proxemics is related to our be..."

Verified W3Q2 · PDF p.11 · MCQ

The word "haptics" is taken from a Greek word that means:

A. I see

B. I hear

C. I touch

D. I feel

> Accepted answer: I touch
> Selected response: I touch (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 3 · L12 Haptics: The Language of Touch
> Concept: Haptics
> Book support: Lecture 12, printed p.179 (PDF p.180): "...The word 'haptics' or the term hap haptics has been taken from a Greek word that means 'I touch'. 179..."

Verified W3Q3 · PDF p.11 · MCQ

The prefix "meta" means:

A. Within

B. Beyond

C. Around

D. Without

> Accepted answer: Beyond
> Selected response: Beyond (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 3 · L13 Meta-communication
> Concept: Meta-communication
> Book support: Lecture 13, printed p.193 (PDF p.194): "...Now, if Meta-communication is a communication beyond words. Should it mean that it will be intentional?..."

Verified W3Q4 · PDF p.11 · MCQ

The study of time in communication is called _____.

A. Communemics

B. Chronemics

C. Kinesics

D. Mimesis

> Accepted answer: Chronemics
> Selected response: Chronemics (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 3 · L11 Proxemics
> Concept: Chronemics
> Book support: Lecture 11, printed p.176 (PDF p.177): "...While space is very important even the knowledge or the study of time is equally important in terms of communication. You will find that while in several countries, people have very rigid or strict notions of time, but then in certain cultures, it has also been found that people take time not as seriously as others and this we..."

Verified W3Q5 · PDF p.11 · Fill-in-the-blank

Hearing is only a _____ activity, whereas listening is a mental activity that requires conscious participation.

A. Physiological

B. Psychological

C. Physical

D. Social

> Accepted answer: Physiological
> Selected response: Physiological (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 3 · L14 Listening Skills
> Concept: Hearing vs listening
> Book support: Lecture 14, printed p.213 (PDF p.214): "...Hearing is only a physiological activity. Around you so many things happen so many sounds are there you hear then, but you do not concentrate on them while listening is totally a mental one...."

Verified W3Q6 · PDF p.12 · MCQ

According to the Space Zone in Proxemics, the social zone corresponds to a space distance of:

A. Up to 18 inches

B. 18 inches to 4 feet

C. 4 feet to 12 feet

D. 12 feet to 30 feet

> Accepted answer: 4 feet to 12 feet
> Selected response: 4 feet to 12 feet (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 3 · L11 Proxemics
> Concept: Hall's proxemic zones
> Book support: Lecture 11, printed p.170 (PDF p.171): "...distant relation, or it is a near relationship, you will find there is a variance in space zones. So, in personal zone the physical touch is allowed, or it actually increases from 18 inches to 4 feet and then we have social zone where the space distancing is between 4 feet to 12 feet and the last is the public zone which actuall..."

Verified W3Q7 · PDF p.12 · MCQ

Listening in which the listener keeps protesting mentally instead of taking in the message is called:

A. Attentive Listening

B. Reflective Listening

C. Combative Listening

D. Appreciative Listening

> Accepted answer: Combative Listening
> Selected response: Combative Listening (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 3 · L15 Types of Listening
> Concept: Types of listening
> Book support: Lecture 15, printed p.225 (PDF p.226): "...The first is a combative listening. Now this listening as the word goes, it is just to listen, but while listening you combat also...."

Verified W3Q8 · PDF p.12 · MCQ

In Thailand and Laos, it is considered rude for a stranger to touch a child on the head because the head is regarded as:

A. the most fragile part of the body

B. the home of the spirit or soul

C. a mark of seniority

D. reserved only for parents

> Accepted answer: the home of the spirit or soul
> Selected response: the home of the spirit or soul (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 3 · L12 Haptics: The Language of Touch
> Concept: Cultural meanings of touch
> Book support: Lecture 12, printed p.185 (PDF p.186): "...You know in Thailand and Laos as the observation says it is rude for a stranger or acquaintance to touch a child on the top of the head. Because touching a child on the top of the head is not considered well, because they are of the opinion that head is the most sacrosanct part of the human body and it is the home of this spirit..."

Verified W3Q9 · PDF p.12 · MCQ

"Lying is done with words and also with silence." This observation is attributed to:

A. Edward T. Hall

B. Ernest Hemingway

C. Adrienne Rich

D. Albert Mehrabian

> Accepted answer: Adrienne Rich
> Selected response: Adrienne Rich (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 3 · L13 Meta-communication
> Concept: Silence as communication
> Book support: Lecture 13, printed p.204 (PDF p.205): "...So, when you are looking at your speaker, you are actually in a way confirming the sort of Meta-communication and through that you are also conveying a sort of message. Adrienne Rich rightly had said, "Lying is done with words and also with silence"...."

Verified W3Q10 · PDF p.12 · MSQ

Which of the following countries are classified as high context cultures? (Select all that apply)

A. Germany

B. Japan

C. England

D. Arab

> Accepted answer: Japan | Arab
> Selected response: Japan | Arab (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 3 · L11 Proxemics
> Concept: High-context and low-context cultures
> Book support: Lecture 11, printed p.174 (PDF p.175): "...The first is the low context culture in which countries like North America, Germany, England, French, Italy and Scandinavia come, whereas, people of the high context cultures include Japan, China, Arab, Greece, Mexico and Spain. Now, what is actually the difference and how space matters between two culture zones...."

Verified W3Q11 · PDF p.13 · MSQ

Which of the following are listed as internal factors that affect listening? (Select all that apply)

A. Noise in the room

B. State of mind

C. Ego

D. Choice of venue

> Accepted answer: State of mind | Ego
> Selected response: State of mind | Ego (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 3 · L15 Types of Listening
> Concept: Factors affecting listening
> Book support: Lecture 15, printed p.234 (PDF p.235): "...Now, there are internal factors also, when listening is at a loss. And what are these internal factors a state of mind...."

Verified W3Q12 · PDF p.13 · MSQ

Which of the following are factors that block or deter proper listening? (Select all that apply)

A. Patience

B. Adequate hearing

C. Prejudging

D. Ambiguity

> Accepted answer: Prejudging | Ambiguity
> Selected response: Prejudging | Ambiguity (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 3 · L15 Types of Listening
> Concept: Barriers to listening
> Book support: Lecture 15, printed p.235 (PDF p.236): "...And you know, we cannot listen unless and until we are free from ego clashes, we are free from clone thoughts, we are free from becoming rigid categories, we are free from ambiguity, and naturally listening cannot take place. In order that we listen intently and we want to utilize listening as listening in it is true word and in..."

Verified W3Q13 · PDF p.13 · MSQ

Which two are stated advantages of silence in a speech? (Select all that apply)

A. It relieves the audience

B. It increases the speaker's rate of delivery

C. It provides thinking time to the speaker

D. It removes the need for preparation

> Accepted answer: It relieves the audience | It provides thinking time to the speaker
> Selected response: It relieves the audience | It provides thinking time to the speaker (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 3 · L13 Meta-communication
> Concept: Silence and pauses in speech
> Book support: Lecture 13, printed p.199 (PDF p.200): "...That is why if I maintain a little bit of silence, I will be buying some time, I will be buying some time to think what I have spoken till now and what I have to speak further. And this will also help the other members relate, this will help the audience members coordinate, this will help them in establishing a sort of connectio..."

Verified W3Q14 · PDF p.13 · MSQ

Excessive use of non-words and vocalized pauses by a speaker may convey: (Select all that apply)

A. Ambiguity or doubt

B. Authority

C. Lack of preparation

D. Command over the subject

> Accepted answer: Ambiguity or doubt | Lack of preparation
> Selected response: Ambiguity or doubt | Lack of preparation (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 3 · L13 Meta-communication
> Concept: Non-words and vocalised pauses
> Book support: Lecture 13, printed p.201 (PDF p.202): "...That there is a lot of ambiguity, there is a lot of doubt in what he says. So, these non-words may denote or may convey ambiguity or doubt...."

Needs verification W3Q15 · PDF p.13 · Match the columns

Match the type of listening in Column A with its situation in Column B, then choose the correct option.

Column A	Column B
1. Content listening	P. A manager hears out a colleague who is distressed
2. Empathetic listening	Q. A senior notes down the instructions given by the chairperson
3. Appreciative listening	R. A team responds warmly to a junior's new idea
4. Analytical listening	S. A leader hears both sides of a dispute before deciding

A. 1-P, 2-Q, 3-R, 4-S

B. 1-Q, 2-P, 3-R, 4-S

C. 1-Q, 2-P, 3-S, 4-R

D. 1-R, 2-S, 3-Q, 4-P

> Accepted answer: 1-Q, 2-P, 3-R, 4-S
> Selected response: 1-Q, 2-P, 3-R, 4-S (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 3 · L15 Types of Listening
> Concept: Types of listening
> Book support: Lecture 15, printed p.228 (PDF p.229): "...I mean if you listen only to one party naturally you cannot take a decision, moreover you may also be biased, that is why what as a leader you do is you actually try to listen to both the parties say there is a dispute between two people, there is a confusion between two people and somebody has to take a serious role in it in or..."
> Note: Content and empathetic listening are confirmed in Lecture 15; appreciative and analytical pairings are by elimination.

Week 4 Assignment (PDF pp. 15–17, 15 questions)

Verified W4Q1 · PDF p.15 · MCQ

What does the acronym WATNA stand for in negotiation?

A. Worst Alternative to a Negotiated Agreement

B. Wise Alternative to a Negotiated Agreement

C. Worst Argument to a Negotiated Agreement

D. Workable Alternative to a Negotiated Agreement

> Accepted answer: Worst Alternative to a Negotiated Agreement
> Selected response: Worst Alternative to a Negotiated Agreement (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 4 · L16 Negotiation Skills I
> Concept: BATNA, WATNA and negotiation terms
> Book support: Lecture 16, printed p.252 (PDF p.253): "...So, whenever you are on a negotiating table and when the negotiation towards the final process, I mean it is going to culminate see to it, that you are going to have a sort of BATNA, but sometimes this BATNA may fail because and if it fails please also remember, you are going in any way not to accept the WATNA. WATNA is a worst..."

Verified W4Q2 · PDF p.15 · MCQ

To which former US President is the following line attributed: "Let us never negotiate out of fear, but let us never fear to negotiate"?

A. Abraham Lincoln

B. John F. Kennedy

C. Franklin D. Roosevelt

D. Woodrow Wilson

> Accepted answer: John F. Kennedy
> Selected response: John F. Kennedy (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 4 · L16 Negotiation Skills I
> Concept: Negotiation: quotations
> Book support: Lecture 16, printed p.245 (PDF p.246): "...So, this fear may affect. One of the former presidents of USA, John of Kennedy says, let us never try to negotiate out of fear, but let us also not fear to negotiate...."

Verified W4Q3 · PDF p.15 · MCQ

According to Alan Fowler, negotiation is any form of meeting or discussion in which the parties use argument and persuasion to arrive at:

A. A unilateral decision favouring the stronger party

B. An agreed decision or action

C. A legally binding written contract

D. A postponement of the conflict

> Accepted answer: An agreed decision or action
> Selected response: An agreed decision or action (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 4 · L16 Negotiation Skills I
> Concept: Definition of negotiation
> Book support: Lecture 16, printed p.240 (PDF p.241): "...And after this argument in persuasion you move to get an agreed decision, an action. This is the definition given by Alan Flower who is considered to be an expert in the field of negotiation...."

Verified W4Q4 · PDF p.15 · MCQ

To which of the following does a real negotiation proceed through?

A. Authority, not instruction

B. Instruction and persuasion, not authority and imposition

C. Imposition backed by seniority

D. Silence and withdrawal

> Accepted answer: Instruction and persuasion, not authority and imposition
> Selected response: Instruction and persuasion, not authority and imposition (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 4 · L16 Negotiation Skills I
> Concept: Nature of negotiation
> Book support: Lecture 16, printed p.245 (PDF p.246): "...You cannot as we have discussed in the beginning that negotiation is a process which goes through instruction and not through authority through persuasion and not through a sort of imposition. Hence, care has to be taken that after negotiation and during negotiation, even you try to seek out the common ground...."

Verified W4Q5 · PDF p.15 · MCQ

In Hong Kong, hospital rooms avoid the number four because the sound "shi" is a homophone for:

A. Poverty

B. Illness

C. Death

D. Bad luck in trade

> Accepted answer: Death
> Selected response: Death (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 4 · L19 Communicating across Cultures
> Concept: Culture and numbers
> Book support: Lecture 19, printed p.294 (PDF p.295): "...In some countries, especially in Hong Kong, the number 4 can be read as shi which is homophone for death. That is why in Hong Kong, there will be no room number 4 especially in hospitals because that signifies death...."

Verified W4Q6 · PDF p.16 · MCQ

Alfred G. Smith, in Communication and Culture, defines culture as:

A. A code we learn and share

B. The sum of a nation's laws and religion

C. An unchanging set of inherited traits

D. The visible customs of a majority community

> Accepted answer: A code we learn and share
> Selected response: A code we learn and share (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 4 · L19 Communicating across Cultures
> Concept: Definition of culture
> Book support: Lecture 19, printed p.288 (PDF p.289): "...We often ignore that other cultures also have some specifications. Now, the culture has been defined by Alfred G Smith in his famous book Communication and Culture as: "Culture is a code, we learn and share and learning and sharing require communication...."

Verified W4Q7 · PDF p.16 · MCQ

Which style, according to the colour-based classification of negotiation styles, is a mix of the competitive and the cooperative approaches and is recommended for negotiators?

A. Red style

B. Blue style

C. Purple style

D. Green style

> Accepted answer: Purple style
> Selected response: Purple style (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 4 · L17 Negotiation Skills II
> Concept: Colour-based negotiation styles
> Book support: Lecture 17, printed p.263 (PDF p.264): "...The purple color style is a mix of both the red and the blue styles. So, when you are negotiating it is advisable to go for the last one that is the purple style, but other than that there are certain qualities we need to imbibe in us in order to make negotiation successful...."

Verified W4Q8 · PDF p.16 · MCQ

According to McGregor, the modern style of management is built on a balance between:

A. Control and freedom

B. Profit and loss

C. Reward and punishment

D. Authority and seniority

> Accepted answer: Control and freedom
> Selected response: Control and freedom (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 4 · L20 Organizational Communication
> Concept: McGregor's management styles
> Book support: Lecture 20, printed p.316 (PDF p.317): "...But McGregor says that the other style which is the modern style which most of you might see. The modern style says that there has to be a balance between control and freedom...."

Verified W4Q9 · PDF p.16 · Fill-in-the-blank

ZOPA stands for the _____ of possible agreement, the space in which an agreement can be reached.

A. area

B. zone

C. medium

D. arena

> Accepted answer: zone
> Selected response: zone (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 4 · L16 Negotiation Skills I, L17 Negotiation Skills II
> Concept: ZOPA
> Book support: Lecture 17, printed p.260 (PDF p.261): "...ZOPA zone of possible agreement, remember zone of possible agreement. So, to reach this zone of possible agreement at times we may have to make some small sacrifices...."

Verified W4Q10 · PDF p.16 · MSQ

Which of the following are listed as qualities of a good negotiator? (Select all that apply)

A. Confidence

B. Rigidity

C. Honesty

D. Aggression

> Accepted answer: Confidence | Honesty
> Selected response: Confidence | Honesty (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 4 · L16 Negotiation Skills I
> Concept: Qualities of a negotiator
> Book support: Lecture 16, printed p.247 (PDF p.248): "...Now, since you have known what are the various processes involved and what are the various threats to a negotiation, it is time that we also knew how important are the qualities of a negotiator, what qualities a does a negotiator require. The first is confidence, how confident you are, the second is appearance then outlook and h..."

Verified W4Q11 · PDF p.17 · MSQ

In a formal negotiation, which of the following are pre-announced beforehand to both parties? (Select all that apply)

A. The personal relationship of the parties

B. The agenda

C. The fear factor involved

D. The venue, date and time

> Accepted answer: The agenda | The venue, date and time
> Selected response: The agenda | The venue, date and time (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 4 · L16 Negotiation Skills I
> Concept: Formal negotiation
> Book support: Lecture 16, printed p.242 (PDF p.243): "...That is why while you decide to fix a date for the negotiation you not only decide the date and the venue; you also decide the agenda and with this agenda in mind you go to a negotiation table. So, a negotiation is pre-announced in a formal way...."

Verified W4Q12 · PDF p.17 · MSQ

Which two are listed among the subjective factors that affect negotiation? (Select all that apply)

A. The upper and lower limits of concession

B. Personal relationship between the parties

C. The fear factor

D. The written summary of the agreement

> Accepted answer: Personal relationship between the parties | The fear factor
> Selected response: Personal relationship between the parties | The fear factor (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 4 · L16 Negotiation Skills I
> Concept: Subjective factors in negotiation
> Book support: Lecture 16, printed p.245 (PDF p.246): "...So, personal relationship matters a lot during negotiation. Sometimes, as I said, the fear factor may also impede a fruitful negotiation...."

Verified W4Q13 · PDF p.17 · MSQ

Which of the following peoples are described as belonging to the low-context culture? (Select all that apply)

A. Japanese

B. Arabs

C. North Americans

D. Germans

> Accepted answer: North Americans | Germans
> Selected response: North Americans | Germans (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 4 · L19 Communicating across Cultures
> Concept: Low-context cultures
> Book support: Lecture 19, printed p.289 (PDF p.290): "...There two cultural contexts, Low cultural contexts and the High cultural context and what are their attributes, what are their specifications. Especially the people of North America, Scandinavia, France and Germany come under low context culture...."

Verified W4Q14 · PDF p.17 · MSQ

According to Maslow's hierarchy, which of the following count as physiological (basic) needs? (Select all that apply)

A. Food

B. Creativity

C. Morality

D. Shelter

> Accepted answer: Food | Shelter
> Selected response: Food | Shelter (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 4 · L20 Organizational Communication
> Concept: Maslow's hierarchy of needs
> Book support: Lecture 20, printed p.314 (PDF p.315): "...So, when you join in organization, there are several stages and Maslow says that in the beginning you actually require a physiological need. This physiological need is that you need a food, shelter, salary you know when you get salary, the basic thing that you need is you actually try to see that you have a sense of belonging, t..."

Verified W4Q15 · PDF p.17 · Match the columns

Match the culture/country with the practice described in the lectures.

Column A	Column B
1. Bulgaria	P. Raising the chin to say "no"
2. Japan	Q. Feel insulted if asked to get down to business at once
3. Sicily	R. Nodding the head up and down to express "no"
4. Mexicans	S. "Hamburger style" of management when criticising
5. Americans	T. Moving the right hand to express refusal

A. 1-R, 2-T, 3-P, 4-Q, 5-S

B. 1-T, 2-R, 3-Q, 4-P, 5-S

C. 1-P, 2-T, 3-R, 4-S, 5-Q

D. 1-R, 2-P, 3-T, 4-S, 5-Q

> Accepted answer: 1-R, 2-T, 3-P, 4-Q, 5-S
> Selected response: 1-R, 2-T, 3-P, 4-Q, 5-S (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 4 · L19 Communicating across Cultures
> Concept: Cultural differences in gestures and style
> Book support: Lecture 19, printed p.296 (PDF p.297): "...You shake heads back and forth in U.S and Canada just to say no, but in Bulgaria you nod yourself up and down, you nod your head up and down just to express. In Japan people move their right hands to express their non-acceptance or express their negative expressions, but in Sicily people often raise their chin to say no...."

Week 5 Assignment (PDF pp. 19–21, 15 questions)

Verified W5Q1 · PDF p.19 · Fill-in-the-blank

The difference in status can cause _____ communication breakdown.

A. organisational

B. intrapersonal

> Accepted answer: organisational
> Selected response: organisational (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 5 · L22 Communication Breakdown Part II
> Concept: Causes of communication breakdown
> Book support: Lecture 22, printed p.341 (PDF p.342): "...Now, how to be aware of these organizational breakdowns, what to do? I mean it is the status that matters the most in organization and when a person at the top level, communicates with the person at the lower level because the lower level people often do not get the opportunity of communicating with the higher people...."

Verified W5Q2 · PDF p.19 · Fill-in-the-blank

The goal of business writing is to impress the clients with _____ language.

A. colloquial

B. professional

> Accepted answer: professional
> Selected response: professional (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 5 · L23 Advanced Writing Skills, L25 Types of Business Writing Part I
> Concept: Goal of business writing
> Book support: Lecture 25, printed p.392 (PDF p.393): "...As a professional who has to play his part in different ways, one has to arm oneself with the nuances of writing skills. In the previous lecture, we talked about the importance of writing skills and how one can use language in order to make things explicit and not implicit in a business world...."

Verified W5Q3 · PDF p.19 · Fill-in-the-blank

Act of plagiarism comes under _____ form of communication breakdown.

A. ethical

B. physical

> Accepted answer: ethical
> Selected response: ethical (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 5 · L22 Communication Breakdown Part II, L45 Adaptability and Work Ethics
> Concept: Ethical breakdown
> Book support: Lecture 22, printed p.350 (PDF p.351): "...Also commit to the ethical communication and avoid making judgments. Avoid becoming too much, you know extreme when it comes to giving statements and all and please create effective, efficient and lean messages...."

Verified W5Q4 · PDF p.19 · Fill-in-the-blank

While using _____ plan, a neutral tone should be maintained.

A. a direct

B. an indirect

> Accepted answer: a direct
> Selected response: a direct (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 5 · L23 Advanced Writing Skills
> Concept: Direct and indirect plans in writing
> Book support: Lecture 23, printed p.365 (PDF p.366): "...written in a direct plan. Remember the tone is very neutral and it appears very pleasant...."

Verified W5Q5 · PDF p.19 · Fill-in-the-blank

Semantic Gap occurs because meanings are _____.

A. confusing

B. contextualized

> Accepted answer: contextualized
> Selected response: contextualized (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 5 · L21 Communication Breakdown Part I
> Concept: Semantic gap
> Book support: Lecture 21, printed p.336 (PDF p.337): "...That is why the importance of background is very important. Moreover, you will also find that on many occasions you come across a barrier which arises because of a semantic gap...."

Verified W5Q6 · PDF p.19 · MCQ

Which of the following best defines communication breakdown?

A. Failure to write correctly

B. Any step that blocks or interferes with message flow

C. Misuse of technical jargon

D. Lack of vocabulary

> Accepted answer: Any step that blocks or interferes with message flow
> Selected response: Any step that blocks or interferes with message flow (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 5 · L21 Communication Breakdown Part I
> Concept: Definition of communication breakdown
> Book support: Lecture 21, printed p.324 (PDF p.325): "...If you look at this situation you will find that communication barrier is when you start a communication process some way or the other there is something that either blocks, restricts or interferes with the smooth flow of message and since the message does not go smooth, since the most message does not achieve its required purp..."

Verified W5Q7 · PDF p.20 · MCQ

Which one of the following statements is/are most suitable for Combative listening?

A. Listening simply to promote/strengthen our own views

B. Listening to each and every word of the speaker

C. Listening to words and analyzing them simultaneously

D. None of the above

> Accepted answer: Listening simply to promote/strengthen our own views
> Selected response: Listening simply to promote/strengthen our own views (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 5 · L15 Types of Listening
> Concept: Combative listening
> Book support: Lecture 15, printed p.225 (PDF p.226): "...The first is a combative listening. Now this listening as the word goes, it is just to listen, but while listening you combat also...."

Verified W5Q8 · PDF p.20 · MCQ

Which among the following can be the probable cause(s) of communication breakdown?

A. Speaker

B. Listner

C. Medium of communication

D. All of the above

> Accepted answer: All of the above
> Selected response: All of the above (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 5 · L21 Communication Breakdown Part I, L22 Communication Breakdown Part II
> Concept: Sources of communication breakdown
> Book support: Lecture 21, printed p.325 (PDF p.326): "...You create a communication barrier, but when you realize you perhaps try to improve it and you become successful. So, while you are going to identify like what cause this barrier you can also find about various alternatives or solution and depending upon the situation, you have to apply the best solution and then see feedback an..."

Verified W5Q9 · PDF p.20 · MCQ

Which of the following attributes is best related to the geographical pattern of writing used in an organization?

A. Topical

B. Spatial

C. Casual

D. Chronological

> Accepted answer: Spatial
> Selected response: Spatial (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 5 · L23 Advanced Writing Skills
> Concept: Patterns of organising writing
> Book support: Lecture 23, printed p.370 (PDF p.371): "...So, on this pattern also you can create, you can make your writing because all these patterns are going to help the reader not only understand, but they are also going to help the reader remember what you said. Then come spatial pattern which actually means space where you are going to talk about something in a very geographical..."

Needs verification W5Q10 · PDF p.20 · Ordering (MCQ)

Arrange the following in order, from what should be done first to what should be done last: (i) Researching (ii) Revising (iii) Conceptualizing (iv) Drafting

A. iv-ii-iii-i

B. ii-iv-i-iii

C. iii-i-iv-ii

D. i-iii-ii-iv

> Accepted answer: iii-i-iv-ii
> Selected response: iii-i-iv-ii (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 5 · L24 Principles of Business Writing
> Concept: Stages of the writing process
> Book support: Lecture 24, printed p.387 (PDF p.388): "...Last task in the writing is revision before finally, you are writing is sent further. So, when you are revising see to it that can we delete a particular clause or a particular word or a particular phrase in order to be more effective or in order to be more concise...."
> Note: Lecture 24 states revision comes last; the full order conceptualising–researching–drafting–revising is not spelled out verbatim.

Verified W5Q11 · PDF p.20 · MSQ

Which organizational characteristics contribute to communication breakdown? (Select all that apply)

A. Fear of superior's perception

B. Negative attitudes in organization

C. Audience-centred approach

D. Synergy between verbal and non-verbal

> Accepted answer: Fear of superior's perception | Negative attitudes in organization
> Selected response: Fear of superior's perception | Negative attitudes in organization (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 5 · L22 Communication Breakdown Part II
> Concept: Organisational barriers
> Book support: Lecture 22, printed p.339 (PDF p.340): "...So, because of the organizational characteristics also, communication barrier arises. Moreover, we have another communication breakdown which is because of the fear of superior's perception in the previous lecture, we have talked about perception and we have said that no two people have the same perception, but when you communic..."

Verified W5Q12 · PDF p.21 · MSQ

Which of the following are features of effective writing? (Select all that apply)

A. Directness

B. Use of jargon

C. Easy to understand

D. Long sentences

> Accepted answer: Directness | Easy to understand
> Selected response: Directness | Easy to understand (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 5 · L23 Advanced Writing Skills
> Concept: Features of effective writing
> Book support: Lecture 23, printed p.359 (PDF p.360): "...For example, when you are going to write effectively you must understand the various features involved first is directness. 359..."

Verified W5Q13 · PDF p.21 · MSQ

A piece of official business writing which is circulated within the organization is called: (Select all that apply)

A. Official letter

B. Circular

C. Official report

D. Memorandum

> Accepted answer: Circular | Memorandum
> Selected response: Circular | Memorandum (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 5 · L25 Types of Business Writing Part I, L26 Types of Business Writing Part II
> Concept: Internal business documents
> Book support: Lecture 25, printed p.395 (PDF p.396): "...That means, it is circulated among the members of the organization that is why we call it inter office memorandum. It is it can actually be understood as a piece of official as well as business writing which is circulated within the organization with the members of the organization and since it is within the organization it is n..."

Verified W5Q14 · PDF p.21 · MSQ

Which of the following comprise ethical considerations in communication? (Select all that apply)

A. Mixed reactions

B. Misquoting

C. Plagiarism

D. Misunderstanding

> Accepted answer: Misquoting | Plagiarism
> Selected response: Misquoting | Plagiarism (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 5 · L22 Communication Breakdown Part II
> Concept: Ethics in communication
> Book support: Lecture 22, printed p.346 (PDF p.347): "...So, as a careful communicator and since we are communicating in an organization and communication leads to some decision, see to it that we are not misquoting, we are not making a far- fetched prediction. At times people make far- fetched predictions and these actually pass because they are also made informally they pass from on..."

Verified W5Q15 · PDF p.21 · MSQ

Find out the correct statement(s) about the principles of business writing. (Select all that apply)

A. It should have clarity.

B. It should have pompous and erratic words.

C. It should be plain and concise.

D. Professional tone needs not to be maintained in every situation.

> Accepted answer: It should have clarity. | It should be plain and concise.
> Selected response: It should have clarity. | It should be plain and concise. (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 5 · L24 Principles of Business Writing
> Concept: Principles of business writing
> Book support: Lecture 24, printed p.378 (PDF p.379): "...A good writing does is very important. And it should be clear concise and plain what I actually do you mean by plain, I mean dear friends...."

Week 6 Assignment (PDF pp. 22–24, 15 questions)

Verified W6Q1 · PDF p.22 · Fill-in-the-blank

The Simplified format is used when the writer is _____ of the status or gender of the receiver.

A. aware

B. not aware

> Accepted answer: not aware
> Selected response: not aware (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 6 · L28 Business Letters: Format & Style
> Concept: Simplified letter format
> Book support: Lecture 28, printed p.459 (PDF p.460): "...Next is the simplified format. In simplified format, the writer is not aware of the status or the gender of the receiver...."

Verified W6Q2 · PDF p.22 · Fill-in-the-blank

A business letter should end with _____.

A. a clear warning

B. a hopeful statement

> Accepted answer: a hopeful statement
> Selected response: a hopeful statement (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 6 · L27 Business Letters, L29 Types of Business Letters Part I
> Concept: Closing of business letters
> Book support: Lecture 29, printed p.474 (PDF p.475): "...Sometimes or the other, you may also write when you are going to end the letter, you may also write—'I appreciate this information that will enable me to decide our order for 45 ACs for our office'. And in the first line you actually would like to know about the particular product whatsoever and when you are going to close your..."

Verified W6Q3 · PDF p.22 · Fill-in-the-blank

While replying to _____, the subject line should avoid being a complete sentence.

A. letters of enquiry

B. letters of confirmation

> Accepted answer: letters of enquiry
> Selected response: letters of enquiry (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 6 · L29 Types of Business Letters Part I
> Concept: Subject line in business letters
> Book support: Lecture 29, printed p.475 (PDF p.476): "...Once you have sent a letter of Enquiry you are bound to receive a reply and based on your reply you are also going to place the orders but suppose the letter for enquiry came and you are to respond, now how should you respond? First is that you are as we have discussed earlier the subject line is very important...."

Verified W6Q4 · PDF p.22 · Fill-in-the-blank

In business letter, _____ tone should be followed.

A. an informal

B. a neutral

> Accepted answer: a neutral
> Selected response: a neutral (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 6 · L27 Business Letters
> Concept: Tone of business letters
> Book support: Lecture 27, printed p.433 (PDF p.434): "...Because in business time is a commodity and you have to save time and for that letter writers especially who are writing business letters should see that they are also maintaining a cordiality, but they are also seeing to it that time is also saved. Remember that one has to follow a neutral tone...."

Verified W6Q5 · PDF p.22 · Fill-in-the-blank

A collection letter usually starts with a _____ tone and gradually becomes stronger if payment is delayed.

A. gentle

B. harsh

> Accepted answer: gentle
> Selected response: gentle (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 6 · L30 Types of Business Letters Part II
> Concept: Collection letters
> Book support: Lecture 30, printed p.485 (PDF p.486): "...So, the first letter will start with a gentle tone, it will become a bit harsh in the second letter. 485..."

Verified W6Q6 · PDF p.22 · MCQ

Which of the following is not true about a research paper?

A. It is a formal and systematic piece of writing

B. It adds to the existing repertoire of knowledge.

C. It is an accumulation of philosophical ideas with fallacious findings.

D. It is a process of discovering new and novel ideas.

> Accepted answer: It is an accumulation of philosophical ideas with fallacious findings.
> Selected response: It is an accumulation of philosophical ideas with fallacious findings. (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 6 · L26 Types of Business Writing Part II
> Concept: Research paper
> Book support: Lecture 26, printed p.425 (PDF p.426): "...You know it is actually a tragedy that many of us even though are not clear as to what should be the length of the title how many words should there be in the title of a research paper sometimes or the other you actually give it a title which is not suitable. So, first decide a title, once you have decided the title, you actuall..."

Verified W6Q7 · PDF p.23 · MCQ

Which among the following is not a characteristic feature of a refusal letter?

A. It should ignore the applicant's request.

B. It should state reasons of refusal and retain goodwill.

C. Use of harsh language is not acceptable here.

D. It should avoid suggesting alternatives.

> Accepted answer: It should ignore the applicant's request.
> Selected response: It should ignore the applicant's request. (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 6 · L29 Types of Business Letters Part I
> Concept: Refusal letters
> Book support: Lecture 29, printed p.482 (PDF p.483): "...While you are drafting a refusal letter maintain the same cordiality thank the applicant for the request, for their interest in a particular product if you are all you are not in a position to grant them the credit. 482..."

Verified W6Q8 · PDF p.23 · MCQ

Which of the following is a key feature of minutes of a meeting?

A. Written in future tense

B. Logical sequencing of events

C. Use of complex language

D. Avoiding names of members

> Accepted answer: Logical sequencing of events
> Selected response: Logical sequencing of events (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 6 · L26 Types of Business Writing Part II
> Concept: Minutes of a meeting
> Book support: Lecture 26, printed p.414 (PDF p.415): "...So, minutes describe the happening of the meeting as we said and then it is actually a written description of the events of the meeting and it is in a very sequential manner. It is the duty of the secretary to announce even though he has already circulated the agenda, but then he will say the first item on the agenda is this an..."

Verified W6Q9 · PDF p.23 · MCQ

A person believes that only he matters and disregards others, saying "I'm okay, you are not okay." To which category of personality does such a person belong?

A. Introvert

B. Imposing

C. Positive

D. Negative

> Accepted answer: Imposing
> Selected response: Imposing (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 6 · L6 Positive Thinking
> Concept: Berne's life positions
> Book support: Lecture 6, printed p.86 (PDF p.87): "...The third category of person will say I am okay, you are not okay. Such a person can be considered to be imposing; he only understands that it is he who matters and not others...."

Verified W6Q10 · PDF p.23 · MCQ

Which of the following parts of a letter explains the qualities of the product and its special features?

A. title

B. salutation

C. body

D. subject

> Accepted answer: body
> Selected response: body (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 6 · L29 Types of Business Letters Part I
> Concept: Parts of a business letter (sales letter)
> Book support: Lecture 29, printed p.472 (PDF p.473): "...Once you have talked about the introductory paragraph, then you will come to the body of the letter where you will explain about the product and for doing that there are several ways, say for example, you are going to give trial offers, you are going to give guarantees, you are also going to provide free samples, you are also g..."

Verified W6Q11 · PDF p.23 · MSQ

What should be the primary goal(s) of an adjustment letter? (Select all that apply)

A. Rectification of the earlier mistake(s)

B. Neglecting future business proposals

C. Regaining the customer's confidence

D. Avoiding customer's feedback

> Accepted answer: Rectification of the earlier mistake(s) | Regaining the customer's confidence
> Selected response: Rectification of the earlier mistake(s) | Regaining the customer's confidence (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 6 · L30 Types of Business Letters Part II
> Concept: Adjustment letters
> Book support: Lecture 30, printed p.494 (PDF p.495): "...And the organizations also want to regain the confidence of the customer and they want that further business to be promoted. For that while they are going to write the adjustment letter they actually have certain policies...."

Verified W6Q12 · PDF p.24 · MSQ

Which guidelines should be followed while drafting recommendation letters? (Select all that apply)

A. Honesty

B. Use of vague remarks

C. Focus on the personal information of the candidate

D. Confidentiality

> Accepted answer: Honesty | Confidentiality
> Selected response: Honesty | Confidentiality (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 6 · L30 Types of Business Letters Part II
> Concept: Recommendation letters
> Book support: Lecture 30, printed p.500 (PDF p.501): "...While doing so there has to be certain cares which actually require our attention, we cannot recommend each and every one, but when you are going to recommend. Please see that you are honest, you are maintaining a sort of confidentiality, but then sometimes when you are writing a recommendation letter at the suggestion of some o..."

Verified W6Q13 · PDF p.24 · MSQ

Which practice(s) among the following should be avoided in professional e-mail communication? (Select all that apply)

A. Using words in capital letters

B. Sarcasm or satire

C. Subject

D. Salutation in the content of the e-mail

> Accepted answer: Using words in capital letters | Sarcasm or satire
> Selected response: Using words in capital letters | Subject (score 0/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 6 · L26 Types of Business Writing Part II
> Concept: E-mail etiquette
> Book support: Lecture 26, printed p.421 (PDF p.422): "...Avoid using words in capital - do you know my dear friends that when you use capital letters in email it is just like you are shouting. So, never give people the impression that you are shouting in an electronic mail...."

Verified W6Q14 · PDF p.24 · MSQ

Which of the following are essential components of professional meeting documentation? (Select all that apply)

A. Verbal Reports and Chat Logs

B. Agenda

C. Informal Memos

D. Minutes

> Accepted answer: Agenda | Minutes
> Selected response: Agenda | Minutes (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 6 · L26 Types of Business Writing Part II
> Concept: Meeting documentation
> Book support: Lecture 26, printed p.417 (PDF p.418): "...The minutes are to be written in the past tense since minutes are written after the meeting, hence care has to be taken that they are written in the past tense. And when you are writing the agenda, there are two ways you can write the agenda...."

Verified W6Q15 · PDF p.24 · MSQ

When a customer lodges a complaint and an organization writes an adjustment letter, which of the following strategies should be followed? (Select all that apply)

A. Open the letter by directly conveying the coercive measures taken

B. Use pleasant language in the opening sentence

C. Avoid using negative words

D. Make broad, unrealistic promises

> Accepted answer: Use pleasant language in the opening sentence | Avoid using negative words
> Selected response: Use pleasant language in the opening sentence | Avoid using negative words (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 6 · L30 Types of Business Letters Part II
> Concept: Adjustment letters
> Book support: Lecture 30, printed p.496 (PDF p.497): "...Remember when a complaint letter comes, and you are going to respond to that complaint letter, you should always try to avoid the use of certain words which actually have a negative bearing, such as trouble, fine, regret no some people saying we regret the inconvenience caused to you. I mean do not say like this, or there you ca..."

Week 7 Assignment (PDF pp. 25–27, 15 questions)

Verified W7Q1 · PDF p.25 · True/False

Data collected from internet sources are considered a primary source of data collection.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: False
> Selected response: False (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 7 · L33 Strategies for Report Writing Part I
> Concept: Primary and secondary sources
> Book support: Lecture 33, printed p.538 (PDF p.539): "...Hence, the need is that you need to be very particular you need to be very careful and cautious while you are collecting data through observation. Now, there are other ways also as I said it is not only the primary one, primary source is observation and then investigation, the secondary sources are as I said Internet, internal s..."

Verified W7Q2 · PDF p.25 · True/False

Personal observation reports behaviour instead of interpreting it.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: True
> Selected response: True (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 7 · L33 Strategies for Report Writing Part I
> Concept: Personal observation
> Book support: Lecture 33, printed p.541 (PDF p.542): "...observation. Observation can report behavior rather it cannot interpret it, because you know there are different reasons for a person to behave in such a manner and for that you cannot for that again you have to have another observation...."

Verified W7Q3 · PDF p.25 · True/False

The bias of the interviewer cannot interfere in a telephonic interview.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: False
> Selected response: False (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 7 · L33 Strategies for Report Writing Part I
> Concept: Interview as a data-collection method
> Book support: Lecture 33, printed p.544 (PDF p.545): "...So, there are so many limitations in this type of, in this method of data collection through telephonic interviews. Hence as a keen observer and as an intelligent interviewer you need if you know if you want to have information which is of immediate need for that you can contact the persons on telephone...."

Verified W7Q4 · PDF p.25 · True/False

The process of seeking information directly through a conversation with an individual is called a personal interview.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: True
> Selected response: True (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 7 · L34 Strategies for Report Writing Part II
> Concept: Personal interview
> Book support: Lecture 34, printed p.546 (PDF p.547): "...So, personal interview can be defined as a process of seeking information directly through a conversation with the individual. It has so many benefits even though it has some regards also, because suppose you want to collect data on a particular problem where you need to interview so many people of course you will have to under..."

Verified W7Q5 · PDF p.25 · True/False

Literary writings always follow a fixed structure and are directed toward a fixed audience, leaving little scope for variation or reinterpretation.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: False
> Selected response: False (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 7 · L31 Report Writing
> Concept: Technical vs literary writing
> Book support: Lecture 31, printed p.514 (PDF p.515): "...When I say fixed structure what I mean is----- it should have a proper beginning, it should have a proper discussion, it should have a proper end. Moreover, the findings that you have come across should also have something to support because your report and the results of your report has to be logical, because there has to be so..."

Verified W7Q6 · PDF p.25 · MCQ

Which of the following sampling is based on the probability method?

A. Snowball sampling

B. Quota sampling

C. Random sampling

D. Judgment sampling

> Accepted answer: Random sampling
> Selected response: Random sampling (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 7 · L35 Evaluation and Organization of Data
> Concept: Sampling methods
> Book support: Lecture 35, printed p.561 (PDF p.562): "...So, sampling is one of the methods and sampling can be of two types, there are two methods of sampling first is a probability method and the second is non probability. Now depending upon the crowd, depending upon the audience from whom you have collected data you actually have to decide your target audience and when we talk abou..."

Verified W7Q7 · PDF p.26 · MCQ

Which among the following types of reports are generally written at regular but fixed intervals?

A. Management reports

B. Technical reports

C. Routine reports

D. Special reports

> Accepted answer: Routine reports
> Selected response: Routine reports (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 7 · L32 Types of Reports
> Concept: Types of reports
> Book support: Lecture 32, printed p.524 (PDF p.525): "...Now, this routine report has got a sort of regularity; regularity in terms of frequency as I said earlier, it may be written in a month or in 2 months time sometimes in a week or a fourth night. So, such a report is regular, but at fixed intervals...."

Verified W7Q8 · PDF p.26 · MCQ

Which among the following is an example of secondary source of data collection?

A. Books

B. Internet sources

C. Journals

D. All of the above

> Accepted answer: All of the above
> Selected response: All of the above (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 7 · L33 Strategies for Report Writing Part I
> Concept: Secondary sources
> Book support: Lecture 33, printed p.538 (PDF p.539): "...Hence, the need is that you need to be very particular you need to be very careful and cautious while you are collecting data through observation. Now, there are other ways also as I said it is not only the primary one, primary source is observation and then investigation, the secondary sources are as I said Internet, internal s..."

Verified W7Q9 · PDF p.26 · MCQ

Which of the following best defines "circumlocution" in report writing?

A. Use of technical jargon

B. Use of pompously wordy expressions

C. Use of clichés repeatedly

D. Use of redundancy in sentences

> Accepted answer: Use of pompously wordy expressions
> Selected response: Use of pompously wordy expressions (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 7 · L38 Report Style: Part I
> Concept: Circumlocution
> Book support: Lecture 38, printed p.625 (PDF p.626): "...I mean circumlocutions are roundabout expressions I mean something that you want to say, but you have not been able to say. So, for that you make use of circumstances, I 625..."

Verified W7Q10 · PDF p.26 · MCQ

Which of the following is/are true about personal observation as a method of data collection?

A. It is costlier and time-consuming than the other methods of data collection.

B. It both interprets and reports human behaviour

C. It is a holistic method in itself.

D. Both A and B

> Accepted answer: It is costlier and time-consuming than the other methods of data collection.
> Selected response: Both A and B (score 0/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 7 · L33 Strategies for Report Writing Part I
> Concept: Personal observation
> Book support: Lecture 33, printed p.540 (PDF p.541): "...So, as a method of data collection it is costlier also because you cannot go and observe each and every people when in terms of having a data collection on the behavior aspect of people. Moreover, if you want to have a particular person for observation as a method of data collection maybe he is not available also may be there ar..."

Verified W7Q11 · PDF p.26 · MSQ

Which among the following are the preparatory steps for report writing? (Select all that apply)

A. Choose a random method for data collection

B. Identify your purpose and scope

C. Overlook the audience

D. Make an outline

> Accepted answer: Identify your purpose and scope | Make an outline
> Selected response: Identify your purpose and scope | Make an outline (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 7 · L33 Strategies for Report Writing Part I, L35 Evaluation and Organization of Data
> Concept: Preparatory steps for report writing
> Book support: Lecture 33, printed p.528 (PDF p.529): "...When you have been assigned the task of writing a report, there are certain things that you should know. The first is: Identify your purpose and scope, and then determine your audience, choose the right method of data collection, organize the material, and then make an outline...."

Verified W7Q12 · PDF p.27 · MSQ

Which of the following are disadvantages of observation as a data collection method? (Select all that apply)

A. Costlier and slower

B. Provides first-hand knowledge

C. Reports behaviour rather than interpretation

D. Helps study non-verbal behaviour

> Accepted answer: Costlier and slower | Reports behaviour rather than interpretation
> Selected response: Costlier and slower (score 0.5/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 7 · L33 Strategies for Report Writing Part I
> Concept: Observation: advantages and disadvantages
> Book support: Lecture 33, printed p.540 (PDF p.541): "...So, as a method of data collection it is costlier also because you cannot go and observe each and every people when in terms of having a data collection on the behavior aspect of people. Moreover, if you want to have a particular person for observation as a method of data collection maybe he is not available also may be there ar..."

Verified W7Q13 · PDF p.27 · MSQ

Which of the following practices should be avoided in report writing to maintain clarity and professionalism? (Select all that apply)

A. Use of small sentences

B. Use of foreign words and phrases unnecessarily

C. Use of familiar and plain words

D. Use of redundancy

> Accepted answer: Use of foreign words and phrases unnecessarily | Use of redundancy
> Selected response: Use of foreign words and phrases unnecessarily | Use of redundancy (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 7 · L38 Report Style: Part I
> Concept: Clarity in report language
> Book support: Lecture 38, printed p.621 (PDF p.622): "...So, the impact of Latin is still there on many scholars, and at times when they are going to use something they make use of foreign words and phrases. So, when you feel that there are uses of foreign words and phrases it is better to stop and change that...."

Verified W7Q14 · PDF p.27 · MSQ

Which of the following are advantages of questionnaires? (Select all that apply)

A. Convenient for the respondent

B. Ensures representative sample always

C. Provides detailed observation data

D. Eliminates interviewer bias

> Accepted answer: Convenient for the respondent | Eliminates interviewer bias
> Selected response: Convenient for the respondent | Eliminates interviewer bias (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 7 · L34 Strategies for Report Writing Part II
> Concept: Questionnaires
> Book support: Lecture 34, printed p.553 (PDF p.554): "...Here, there is nothing like control and the bias of the interviewer is eliminated. There is no interviewer who can control the situation, so the respondent is fearless...."

Verified W7Q15 · PDF p.27 · MSQ

Which of the following statements correctly distinguish between technical reports and literary writings? (Select all that apply)

A. Technical reports are written on the demand of organisation, whereas literary writings are written on the demand of specific social groups.

B. Technical reports have a fixed structure, whereas literary writings follow no fixed structure.

C. Technical reports are subjective in approach, whereas literary writings are objective in approach.

D. Technical reports use plain language, whereas literary writings often employ rhetorical language.

> Accepted answer: Technical reports have a fixed structure, whereas literary writings follow no fixed structure. | Technical reports use plain language, whereas literary writings often employ rhetorical language.
> Selected response: Technical reports have a fixed structure, whereas literary writings follow no fixed structure. | Technical reports use plain language, whereas literary writings often employ rhetorical language. (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 7 · L31 Report Writing
> Concept: Technical reports vs literary writing
> Book support: Lecture 31, printed p.514 (PDF p.515): "...When I say fixed structure what I mean is----- it should have a proper beginning, it should have a proper discussion, it should have a proper end. Moreover, the findings that you have come across should also have something to support because your report and the results of your report has to be logical, because there has to be so..."

Week 8 Assignment (PDF pp. 28–30, 15 questions)

Verified W8Q1 · PDF p.28 · True/False

A member in a Group discussion should speak at the top of his voice to make himself heard by the leader.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: False
> Selected response: False (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 8 · L42 Group Discussion: Part I, L43 Group Discussion: Part II
> Concept: Group discussion etiquette
> Book support: Lecture 42, printed p.701 (PDF p.702): "...And we will see in the next lecture how these conflicting situations can be resolved with the help of a leader, and how you can proceed further in this business of group discussion. Form good groups, but communicate in groups; communicate not only individually, but communicate also as a collective team member, because you have o..."

Needs verification W8Q2 · PDF p.28 · True/False

The introduction of a report should include background, problem statement, scope, limitations, and sources of data.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: True
> Selected response: True (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 8 · L36 Structure of Reports: Part-I
> Concept: Introduction of a report
> Book support: Lecture 36, printed p.583 (PDF p.584): "...That is why you want this report to have a forwarding letter. And it talks about the statement of the subject, the purpose, scope also the limitations and it is in a way a statement of acknowledgment...."
> Note: Lectures 36–37 mention statement of subject, purpose, scope and limitations; "sources of data" is not confirmed verbatim.

Verified W8Q3 · PDF p.28 · True/False

According to Peter Drucker, in emergencies like a ship sinking, meetings are the best way to decide actions.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: False
> Selected response: False (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 8 · L40 Group Communication
> Concept: When not to hold meetings
> Book support: Lecture 40, printed p.667 (PDF p.668): "...But then let us look at this observation as a management guru Peter Drucker says: when the ship goes down, you do not call a meeting. The captain gives an order or everybody drowns...."

Verified W8Q4 · PDF p.28 · True/False

Active voice is generally preferred in report writing to maintain clarity and vigor.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: True
> Selected response: True (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 8 · L39 Report Style: Part II
> Concept: Report style: active voice
> Book support: Lecture 39, printed p.631 (PDF p.632): "...Suppose, you say something in an active voice, and you say the same thing in the passive voice, the effect will be different. So, we will be talking about the two voices, how they bring a sort of impact when you are writing the report...."

Verified W8Q5 · PDF p.28 · True/False

Using foreign words and unfamiliar abbreviations makes a report more professional.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: False
> Selected response: False (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 8 · L38 Report Style: Part I
> Concept: Report style: plain words
> Book support: Lecture 38, printed p.611 (PDF p.612): "...I mean foreign words and phrases then sometimes because you at times may have a positive of time. So, you might be using abbreviations, but imagine if you use abbreviations your reader also should know the complete words of those abbreviations...."

Needs verification W8Q6 · PDF p.28 · MCQ

Which of the following elements is not typically included in the executive summary of a report?

A. Objectives

B. Findings

C. Methodology

D. References

> Accepted answer: References
> Selected response: References (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 8 · L36 Structure of Reports: Part-I
> Concept: Executive summary
> Book support: Lecture 36, printed p.590 (PDF p.591): "...While you are writing the report, and when you are in the structural part and you are writing the summary it has to be in such a manner that people who are going to read it, may have some knowledge, because through your abstract you are preparing them to read your report. Next is executive summary...."
> Note: Executive summary is described in Lecture 36 but its exact contents are not itemised; references are not part of it by convention.

Verified W8Q7 · PDF p.29 · MCQ

What should be the characteristics of an ideal team member in a group?

A. To share a common leadership

B. To hold joint accountability for performance

C. To work dedicatedly for achieving a common goal

D. All of the above

> Accepted answer: All of the above
> Selected response: All of the above (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 8 · L40 Group Communication
> Concept: Team membership
> Book support: Lecture 40, printed p.654 (PDF p.655): "...There people who are given the task of organizing lectures, they will be entitled to organize, contact people, and finally decide how this event will take place, that is why we have to understand the difference between teams and groups. Now, the question is what actually are the characteristics or the salient features of a group..."

Verified W8Q8 · PDF p.29 · MCQ

Why does a bibliography differ from a list of references in a report?

A. A bibliography includes only cited works.

B. A bibliography covers all reading, including background material.

C. A bibliography excludes secondary sources.

D. A bibliography is arranged strictly by date of publication.

> Accepted answer: A bibliography covers all reading, including background material.
> Selected response: A bibliography covers all reading, including background material. (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 8 · L37 Structure of Reports: Part-II
> Concept: Bibliography vs references
> Book support: Lecture 37, printed p.601 (PDF p.602): "...Next comes the list of references; now whenever you write a report, your report is based on the data, but then in order to prove your point, you also take the help of a some other observations by some other experts in that area and as I have said earlier, while you are culling out the information and while you are making notes,..."

Verified W8Q9 · PDF p.29 · MCQ

Which category best describes expressions such as "Return back" and "past history" in report writing?

A. Jargon

B. Redundancy

C. Circumlocution

D. Foreign phrases

> Accepted answer: Redundancy
> Selected response: Redundancy (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 8 · L38 Report Style: Part I
> Concept: Redundancy
> Book support: Lecture 38, printed p.624 (PDF p.625): "...So, why do use why are we going to make use of such expressions which are going to be redundant. So, avoid the use of redundancy, even you must also avoid making use of unfamiliar words...."

Verified W8Q10 · PDF p.29 · MCQ

Which of the following is a maintenance role in group communication?

A. Controlling

B. Withdrawing

C. Harmonising

D. Diverting

> Accepted answer: Harmonising
> Selected response: Harmonising (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 8 · L40 Group Communication
> Concept: Group roles: maintenance
> Book support: Lecture 40, printed p.666 (PDF p.667): "...The next role of group members is maintenance roles. All the group members should realize that the group finally, has to come to a consensus, that is why they have to encourage each other and they have to have a sort of coherence or harmony...."

Verified W8Q11 · PDF p.29 · MSQ

Which among the following is/are true about task facilitating roles in a group? (Select all that apply)

A. Diverting

B. Initiating

C. Controlling

D. Co-ordinating

> Accepted answer: Initiating | Co-ordinating
> Selected response: Initiating | Co-ordinating (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 8 · L40 Group Communication
> Concept: Group roles: task facilitating
> Book support: Lecture 40, printed p.665 (PDF p.666): "...First is a self-oriented role, then we have maintenance roles, than the task facilitating roles. In these stages, we have found that there will be some people, some members in the group, who are more, you know, anxious about their self-vested interests...."

Verified W8Q12 · PDF p.30 · MSQ

Which of the following techniques improve sentence style in reports? (Select all that apply)

A. Use of emphatic word order

B. Preferring lengthy noun clusters

C. Use of parallel constructions

D. Avoiding transitions

> Accepted answer: Use of emphatic word order | Use of parallel constructions
> Selected response: Use of emphatic word order | Use of parallel constructions (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 8 · L39 Report Style: Part II
> Concept: Sentence style in reports
> Book support: Lecture 39, printed p.639 (PDF p.640): "...You have not only changed the word order, but you have also tried to establish meaning that is not only logical, but then meaning that is causal, the meaning that is based in such a manner where the readers do not have to feel a sort of difficulty. Parallel construction we have talked about in previous lectures while discussing..."

Verified W8Q13 · PDF p.30 · MSQ

Which of the following are part of the Introduction section of a report? (Select all that apply)

A. Glossary

B. Index

C. Statement of the problem

D. Scope of the problem

> Accepted answer: Statement of the problem | Scope of the problem
> Selected response: Statement of the problem | Scope of the problem (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 8 · L36 Structure of Reports: Part-I
> Concept: Introduction of a report
> Book support: Lecture 36, printed p.583 (PDF p.584): "...That is why you want this report to have a forwarding letter. And it talks about the statement of the subject, the purpose, scope also the limitations and it is in a way a statement of acknowledgment...."

Verified W8Q14 · PDF p.30 · MSQ

Which of the following are transitional elements that help coherence? (Select all that apply)

A. Hidden agenda, groupthink

B. Moreover, furthermore

C. Therefore, consequently

D. Index, glossary

> Accepted answer: Moreover, furthermore | Therefore, consequently
> Selected response: Moreover, furthermore | Therefore, consequently (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 8 · L39 Report Style: Part II
> Concept: Transitions and coherence
> Book support: Lecture 39, printed p.646 (PDF p.647): "...In such a case you are using. Hence, therefore so, this is to say, fine, thus, consequently, like this again sometimes you are showing the contrast and comparison you say while on the one hand delivering lecture through this online method is enjoying, on the other hand it is challenging...."

Verified W8Q15 · PDF p.30 · MSQ

Which of the following are listed as advantages of group communication? (Select all that apply)

A. Diverse views

B. Groupthink

C. Hidden agendas

D. Sense of belonging

> Accepted answer: Diverse views | Sense of belonging
> Selected response: Diverse views | Sense of belonging (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 8 · L40 Group Communication
> Concept: Group communication
> Book support: Lecture 40, printed p.659 (PDF p.660): "...So, the performance in a group is always better. And moreover if you belong to a group, it provides you with a sense of belonging at times you feel very proud to say that you belong to a particular group, you belong to a particular organization, you belong to a particular association, you know after all, all of us are human bein..."

Week 9 Assignment (PDF pp. 31–33, 15 questions)

Verified W9Q1 · PDF p.31 · MCQ

Which one would not be considered by a good leader?

A. Laissez-faire

B. Democratic style

C. Autocratic style

D. Transformational and Transactional

> Accepted answer: Autocratic style
> Selected response: Laissez-faire (score 0/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 9 · L41 Leadership Skills
> Concept: Leadership styles
> Book support: Lecture 41, printed p.671 (PDF p.672): "...action, he takes that only are the genuine actions and that can only help him come out of the situation or that can help him take a solution. So, there can be an autocratic style, but people having such style autocratic style, they are not considered to be a good leader...."

Verified W9Q2 · PDF p.31 · MCQ

Visionary leaders are skilled in:

A. Explaining the vision

B. Expressing the vision through behaviour and action

C. Extend the vision to different contexts

D. All of the above

> Accepted answer: All of the above
> Selected response: All of the above (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 9 · L41 Leadership Skills
> Concept: Visionary leadership
> Book support: Lecture 41, printed p.678 (PDF p.679): "...Now, what actually can the visionary leader do; he will explain the vision whatever vision he has; he will explain the vision, he will not keep people in dark; he will not have a hidden agenda you know he is above his self interest and he will express the vision not only through his behavior; not only through his emotion, but al..."

Verified W9Q3 · PDF p.31 · MCQ

The features of Charismatic Leadership are:

A. Vision and self-confidence

B. To articulate the vision

C. Extra-ordinary behaviour

D. All of the above

> Accepted answer: All of the above
> Selected response: All of the above (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 9 · L41 Leadership Skills
> Concept: Charismatic leadership
> Book support: Lecture 41, printed p.676 (PDF p.677): "...leading no doubt, but at the same time they feel that they are agents of radical change, they will bring out a change the way things are happening such leaders are found in politics religion or business forms. Now if you have a leader who has got a charismatic effect, you will find that he comes above his pretty considerations o..."

Verified W9Q4 · PDF p.31 · Fill-in-the-blank

Group discussion is a _____ face-to-face communication among participants to express and exchange their views on a topic.

A. formal and systematic

B. informal

C. individual

D. intuitive

> Accepted answer: formal and systematic
> Selected response: formal and systematic (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 9 · L42 Group Discussion: Part I
> Concept: Definition of group discussion
> Book support: Lecture 42, printed p.686 (PDF p.687): "...But then when it comes to showing the difference, you will find in a debate, you, at times, become very emotional, the language that you choose that also appears to be very flowery, full of, you know, good words you bring because you simply want to prove your point. But in a GD you actually have to cite facts, because it is a fo..."

Verified W9Q5 · PDF p.31 · MCQ

Group Discussion allows:

A. a dialogic learning process

B. cooperative and every member be given an opportunity to speak

C. of sharing thoughts, opinions, views

D. All of these

> Accepted answer: All of these
> Selected response: All of these (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 9 · L42 Group Discussion: Part I
> Concept: Benefits of group discussion
> Book support: Lecture 42, printed p.701 (PDF p.702): "...My dear friends, when we talk about a group discussion and the various procedures involved in it, we see that unless and until we follow a sort of standard. And by standard I mean, allow everyone to express their ideas, and you also express your ideas and finally, you will find something that will come will be a sort of solution..."

Verified W9Q6 · PDF p.32 · MCQ

Which one should be avoided as a group responsibility?

A. to fulfil an individual assignment

B. interpersonal conflict

C. a full participation

D. None of These

> Accepted answer: interpersonal conflict
> Selected response: interpersonal conflict (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 9 · L42 Group Discussion: Part I
> Concept: Group responsibilities
> Book support: Lecture 42, printed p.698 (PDF p.699): "...So, by being a good human being, you should know that you have one individual responsibility to participate in the group. If there are situations of interpersonal conflict within the group, so some of you, you will find some of you should come forward to resolve that crisis or to bring the discussion back to the mainstream...."

Verified W9Q7 · PDF p.32 · MCQ

The role of a leader has not been:

A. to decide the agenda of meeting

B. to convince the rest of the group

C. saving it from getting sidetracked

D. discourage a less vocal member

> Accepted answer: discourage a less vocal member
> Selected response: discourage a less vocal member (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 9 · L42 Group Discussion: Part I
> Concept: Role of the leader in discussion
> Book support: Lecture 42, printed p.700 (PDF p.701): "...The question is if there is such a person in the group, they can also be cut to their size, how to do that will we will discuss, because these people either try to dominate physically they try to dominate vocally, but you will find that they are lacking in reasoning. If you find some fault in their line of thinking, if you find..."

Needs verification W9Q8 · PDF p.32 · MCQ

What is not meant by leadership?

A. Rational arguments

B. Influencing the proceeding by constructive participation

C. Convincing other participants

D. None of These

> Accepted answer: None of These
> Selected response: None of These (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 9 · L41 Leadership Skills
> Concept: Meaning of leadership
> Book support: Lecture 41, printed p.682 (PDF p.683): "...democratic behavior, but also influences by his creative constructive views suggestions and guides in our during hours of crisis. Let us try to sum up by quoting from Warren E Bennis who says leadership is the capacity to translate vision into reality...."
> Note: "None of these" option cannot be confirmed from the book text.

Verified W9Q9 · PDF p.32 · MCQ

What are the things to be avoided during a group discussion?

A. Listening

B. Politeness

C. take extreme stance

D. Organise the ideas before participating

> Accepted answer: take extreme stance
> Selected response: take extreme stance (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 9 · L43 Group Discussion: Part II
> Concept: Group discussion do's and don'ts
> Book support: Lecture 43, printed p.713 (PDF p.714): "...Sometimes you know many people what they do is--- they take an extreme stance and they become very judgmental, they become very ethical you know you have to be ethical of course, but while discussing you should not show that you are the only person who knows everything, and you are judgmental. And you say you cannot do like this..."

Needs verification W9Q10 · PDF p.32 · MCQ

Which one of the following is not evaluated during a group discussion?

A. Candidate's awareness

B. Leadership

C. Hypocrisy

D. Clarity of thoughts

> Accepted answer: Hypocrisy
> Selected response: Hypocrisy (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 9 · L42 Group Discussion: Part I, L43 Group Discussion: Part II
> Concept: Evaluation criteria in group discussion
> Book support: Lecture 43, printed p.708 (PDF p.709): "...So, when there is a topic and you do not know what sort of topic you have been given. So, if there is a topic which appears like being controversial, so during this discussion it has to be seen if somebody has been hurt religiously, somebody has been hurt ethically, somebody has been insulted...."
> Note: Hypocrisy is not mentioned among evaluation criteria in Lectures 42–43; answer is by elimination.

Verified W9Q11 · PDF p.33 · True/False

Adaptability shows the ability to learn from experience, and improves the fitness of the learner as a competitor.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: True
> Selected response: True (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 9 · L45 Adaptability and Work Ethics
> Concept: Adaptability
> Book support: Lecture 45, printed p.733 (PDF p.734): "...So, the advantage of adaptability is to learn from this new experience and to improve because if you adapt yourself to the changing needs and the changing circumstances, you are also going to help the organization. Not only you are going to enrich yourself, but you are also going to improve the fitness of the organization, you a..."

Verified W9Q12 · PDF p.33 · True/False

The sole purpose of a group discussion is to check the candidate's fluency.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: False
> Selected response: False (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 9 · L42 Group Discussion: Part I
> Concept: Purpose of group discussion
> Book support: Lecture 42, printed p.684 (PDF p.685): "...Now, another thing that you would like to know is why group discussion is so important, what are its uses, and how we can participate in a discussion. Imagine you go for a job fair, and you find that there are quite a good number of candidates waiting to be recruited, waiting for their turns...."

Verified W9Q13 · PDF p.33 · True/False

A meeting without an agenda is like a journey without a destination.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: True
> Selected response: True (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 9 · L44 Meeting Management
> Concept: Meeting management: agenda
> Book support: Lecture 44, printed p.728 (PDF p.729): "...Sometimes you will find that the meeting continues for a long time because apart from the agenda items, something more also comes into a discussion. So, when things go off the hand and when the leader does not seem to have a control over a domineering person, as one of the participants you can always ask---- 'Is the meeting over..."

Needs verification W9Q14 · PDF p.33 · True/False

Every group discussion should aim at a logical conclusion.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: True
> Selected response: True (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 9 · L43 Group Discussion: Part II
> Concept: Group discussion conclusion
> Book support: Lecture 43, printed p.715 (PDF p.716): "...Please see to it that you maintain a proper decorum once you are in a G.D because your main objective in a G.D is to continue a discussion in a very coherent, in a very feasible, in a very rational, in a very logical, in a very democratic, in a very ideal manner. And this can be done if you maintain a sort of balance...."
> Note: Lectures 42–43 do not state that every GD must reach a conclusion; answer follows common GD guidance.

Verified W9Q15 · PDF p.33 · True/False

Employees should be considered as more than just a means to a goal.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: True
> Selected response: True (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 9 · L45 Adaptability and Work Ethics
> Concept: Work ethics
> Book support: Lecture 45, printed p.740 (PDF p.741): "...Now again Immanuel Kant says that--- that is why every employee; he should not be considered only as means, but also as ends, employees are the great resources and out of these resources; you actually have to think about the welfare also of the organization that is why, you will find when we talk about the rights, duties and whe..."

Week 10 Assignment (PDF pp. 34–36, 15 questions)

Verified W10Q1 · PDF p.34 · MCQ

Speaking skills are _____ communication coupled with _____ cues.

A. verbal, verbal

B. non-verbal, verbal

C. verbal, non-verbal

D. non-verbal, non-verbal

> Accepted answer: verbal, non-verbal
> Selected response: verbal, non-verbal (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 10 · L46 Advanced Speaking Skills
> Concept: Speaking skills
> Book support: Lecture 46, printed p.752 (PDF p.753): "...We have already talked a lot about these nonverbal cues while discussing nonverbal communication or communicating without words. So, speaking is ability, and this speaking ability can be developed as a form of speaking skills where your verbal communication is coupled with your nonverbal communication...."

Verified W10Q2 · PDF p.34 · MCQ

The importance of advanced speaking skills are:

A. Expressing views

B. Maintaining social and business relationship

C. Establishing credibility

D. All of these

> Accepted answer: All of these
> Selected response: All of these (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 10 · L46 Advanced Speaking Skills
> Concept: Importance of advanced speaking skills
> Book support: Lecture 46, printed p.750 (PDF p.751): "...So, today we are going to talk about the various benefits or advantages of a speaking individually and which we call advanced speaking skills. Now, if you go back and if you visualize the image of the person who was inert, you could have found that other group members they had very different opinions about that person...."

Verified W10Q3 · PDF p.34 · MCQ

Which of the following are the key components of effective speaking?

A. Voice, Vocabulary, Audience, Style

B. Reading, Writing, Listening, Thinking

C. Loudness, Speed, Silence

D. Grammar, Spelling, Punctuation, Syntax

> Accepted answer: Voice, Vocabulary, Audience, Style
> Selected response: Voice, Vocabulary, Audience, Style (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 10 · L46 Advanced Speaking Skills
> Concept: Components of effective speaking
> Book support: Lecture 46, printed p.760 (PDF p.761): "...So, audience is also very important and then comes the style. So, these four, according to me are the components of effective speaking...."

Verified W10Q4 · PDF p.34 · MCQ

Which of the following has been considered as an effective Oral Presentation?

A. Informative and persuasive

B. Use of visual aids

C. Decision-making involved and the question-answer session

D. All of these

> Accepted answer: All of these
> Selected response: All of these (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 10 · L51 Making Effective Presentations
> Concept: Effective oral presentation
> Book support: Lecture 51, printed p.842 (PDF p.843): "...But when you are going to deliver the presentation, now it is time you understood where you are pointing to, nowadays you have got the pointers. And all if you are giving an oral presentation...."

Verified W10Q5 · PDF p.34 · MCQ

Which of the following defines a Debate?

A. argumentative ability and logical opinion

B. an informal exchange of ideas

C. one-sided informative talk

D. None of these

> Accepted answer: argumentative ability and logical opinion
> Selected response: argumentative ability and logical opinion (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 10 · L47 Oral Presentations, Speeches, and Debates
> Concept: Debate
> Book support: Lecture 47, printed p.776 (PDF p.777): "...Now, when you are in a debate or when a debate is organized, what are the expectations and what are you supposed to do. First is that you have to build a sort of argumentative ability--- argumentative ability; how to do that what are actually the components in a debate you will find when the debate topics are announced...."

Verified W10Q6 · PDF p.35 · MCQ

Oral communication, ability to express one's thoughts and emotions by speech sounds and gesture are called:

A. Oral Presentations

B. Speeches

C. Presentations

D. Debates

> Accepted answer: Speeches
> Selected response: Speeches (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 10 · L47 Oral Presentations, Speeches, and Debates
> Concept: Speeches
> Book support: Lecture 47, printed p.775 (PDF p.776): "...Now speech is actually the faculty of speaking, the power of speaking the lexical meaning of speech is the way you speak; it is once again a sort of oral communication; it is a face to face communication where you are expressing your thoughts, your opinions with the help of these speech sounds and with the help of your gesture a..."

Verified W10Q7 · PDF p.35 · MCQ

Which of the following is considered a practice for stress busting?

A. Start with a pause and speak slowly

B. Speak slowly and distinctly

C. Review when you forget

D. All of these

> Accepted answer: All of these
> Selected response: All of these (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 10 · L48 Combating Nervousness, L51 Making Effective Presentations
> Concept: Combating nervousness
> Book support: Lecture 48, printed p.796 (PDF p.797): "...nothing that can stop you. Since it is a psychological process, it is better to practice, practice makes a man perfect and practice some stress busters also...."

Verified W10Q8 · PDF p.35 · MCQ

One of the reasons for becoming nervous is:

A. being seasoned

B. familiarity

C. unfamiliarity with topic or crowd

D. None of these

> Accepted answer: unfamiliarity with topic or crowd
> Selected response: unfamiliarity with topic or crowd (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 10 · L48 Combating Nervousness
> Concept: Causes of nervousness
> Book support: Lecture 48, printed p.787 (PDF p.788): "...Psychologists go on saying that people become nervous only because they are more concerned about their image. And about their image before the crowd, they feel that their nervousness is being watched by the people sitting there...."

Verified W10Q9 · PDF p.35 · MCQ

Awareness of the audience, clarity of purpose, appropriate selection of the topic, and effective utilisation of visual aids constitute the fundamental prerequisites for _____.

A. Combating nervousness

B. Leadership skills

C. Adaptability and Work Ethics

D. an oral presentation

> Accepted answer: an oral presentation
> Selected response: an oral presentation (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 10 · L50 Oral Presentation: Planning & Preparation
> Concept: Prerequisites of an oral presentation
> Book support: Lecture 50, printed p.823 (PDF p.824): "...So, when you are writing the speech or the writing the oral presentation, you situate them and many expert speakers actually write in their outline that use of this aid, use of that aid, that actually and you know while you are doing that half the battle is already won because you know this raises your confidence level and if yo..."

Verified W10Q10 · PDF p.35 · MCQ

Which of the following is a recommended step while deciding a topic for an oral presentation?

A. Choose a familiar subject

B. Use references

C. Formulate your specific purpose statement

D. All of these

> Accepted answer: All of these
> Selected response: All of these (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 10 · L50 Oral Presentation: Planning & Preparation
> Concept: Selecting a topic
> Book support: Lecture 50, printed p.818 (PDF p.819): "...So, when you have decided the topic, you have to formulate your specific purpose statement. Now what I mean by purpose statement ask yourself that what will happen if I give a presentation on such and such topic what is my specific purpose am I going to add something new to their knowledge or am I going to persuade them to a new..."

Verified W10Q11 · PDF p.36 · True/False

Conversation is an art and it can be mastered through advanced speaking skills.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: True
> Selected response: True (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 10 · L46 Advanced Speaking Skills
> Concept: Advanced speaking skills
> Book support: Lecture 46, printed p.753 (PDF p.754): "...You know conversation is also art, not everyone can speak, not everyone can converse beautifully. So, conversation is an art...."

Verified W10Q12 · PDF p.36 · True/False

Press briefing and orientation are popular examples of presentation.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: True
> Selected response: True (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 10 · L47 Oral Presentations, Speeches, and Debates
> Concept: Types of presentation
> Book support: Lecture 47, printed p.772 (PDF p.773): "...The presentation that you give in your organization and when you are supposed to brief it to the press naturally there are differences your words; your say sentences your overall you know description will be different because it is for others. So, it may be briefing for the press; sometimes you also may have to give a presentati..."

Verified W10Q13 · PDF p.36 · True/False

Anxiety is a psychological and physiological state characterized by cognitive, somatic, emotional, and behavioral components that create an unpleasant feeling of uneasiness, fear, or worry.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: True
> Selected response: True (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 10 · L48 Combating Nervousness
> Concept: Anxiety and nervousness
> Book support: Lecture 48, printed p.785 (PDF p.786): "...Now the question of this nervousness is because you do not know, you are frightened; it is a sort of anxiety, isn't it? So, it is a sort of psychological and physiological state, which is characterized by cognitive...."

Verified W10Q14 · PDF p.36 · True/False

The extemporaneous method of presentation needs a thorough understanding of the subject.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: True
> Selected response: True (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 10 · L49 Patterns and Methods of Presentation
> Concept: Methods of presentation
> Book support: Lecture 49, printed p.810 (PDF p.811): "...You will always be better. The last method of presentation is extemporaneous...."

Verified W10Q15 · PDF p.36 · True/False

The oral presentation should be audience specific.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: True
> Selected response: True (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 10 · L50 Oral Presentation: Planning & Preparation
> Concept: Audience analysis
> Book support: Lecture 50, printed p.826 (PDF p.827): "...It should actually be stepwise because if it is a technical one an oral presentation is most often technical one. So, any thread in it, if it is not systematic the audience will feel like running away or if you simply skip because you have a task to perform you have brought a lot of information you want to skip rather you want t..."

Week 11 Assignment (PDF pp. 37–39, 15 questions)

Verified W11Q1 · PDF p.37 · MCQ

During a presentation, a speaker aims to maintain audience engagement and project confidence. Which combination of practices would be most appropriate?

A. Read the slides continuously and avoid eye contact

B. Maintain eye contact, move naturally, and control voice and vocabulary

C. Memorize the entire presentation and avoid visual aids

D. Speak rapidly and use frequent digressions

> Accepted answer: Maintain eye contact, move naturally, and control voice and vocabulary
> Selected response: Maintain eye contact, move naturally, and control voice and vocabulary (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 11 · L51 Making Effective Presentations
> Concept: Delivery of presentations
> Book support: Lecture 51, printed p.845 (PDF p.846): "...Speak the first sentence from the memory. Maintain eye contact, have a control over your voice and vocabulary and if, at times, you fail that you are being very fast think 845..."

Verified W11Q2 · PDF p.37 · MCQ

A speaker records a practice presentation and reviews the recording afterward. What is the primary purpose of this activity?

A. To replace rehearsal

B. To assess and improve the effectiveness of the presentation

C. To memorize every sentence

D. To eliminate the need for feedback

> Accepted answer: To assess and improve the effectiveness of the presentation
> Selected response: To assess and improve the effectiveness of the presentation (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 11 · L51 Making Effective Presentations
> Concept: Evaluating presentations
> Book support: Lecture 51, printed p.840 (PDF p.841): "...Your body gives the indications it has so many indicators. So, please check the effectiveness of your delivery and the expressiveness whether your presentation expresses or not...."

Verified W11Q3 · PDF p.37 · MCQ

At the conclusion of a conference, a speaker is requested to acknowledge the organizers, guests, and other contributors. What would be the most appropriate approach?

A. Thank people randomly and provide lengthy personal comments

B. Prepare a list of people, follow proper order, and thank them with reasons

C. Mention only the chief guest

D. Avoid mentioning the organizers

> Accepted answer: Prepare a list of people, follow proper order, and thank them with reasons
> Selected response: Prepare a list of people, follow proper order, and thank them with reasons (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 11 · L52 Speeches for Various Occasions
> Concept: Vote of thanks
> Book support: Lecture 52, printed p.866 (PDF p.867): "...When you make a proper order, you should follow, who is senior I mean the systematic way of thanking people. And when you are thanking them, please give the justification, why you are thanking him...."

Verified W11Q4 · PDF p.37 · MCQ

Which of the following best distinguishes a welcome speech from a vote of thanks?

A. A welcome speech introduces and welcomes participants, whereas a vote of thanks expresses gratitude to contributors.

B. A welcome speech honours deceased persons, whereas a vote of thanks introduces guests.

C. Both speeches have exactly the same purpose.

D. A welcome speech is always longer than a vote of thanks.

> Accepted answer: A welcome speech introduces and welcomes participants, whereas a vote of thanks expresses gratitude to contributors.
> Selected response: A welcome speech introduces and welcomes participants, whereas a vote of thanks expresses gratitude to contributors. (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 11 · L52 Speeches for Various Occasions
> Concept: Welcome speech vs vote of thanks
> Book support: Lecture 52, printed p.865 (PDF p.866): "...And these farewell speeches have to be drafted very carefully, because there is no amount of criticism nor too much of exaggeration about the person, since it is a leave taking ceremony. And then the last one is that of vote of thanks...."

Verified W11Q5 · PDF p.37 · MCQ

A company interviews an employee who is leaving the organization to understand the reasons for departure and obtain feedback. This is an example of a:

A. Persuasive interview

B. Evaluation interview

C. Exit interview

D. Counseling interview

> Accepted answer: Exit interview
> Selected response: Exit interview (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 11 · L53 Interviews
> Concept: Types of interviews
> Book support: Lecture 53, printed p.873 (PDF p.874): "...One employee who had been with one organization and is leaving the organization for whatever reason, but then there may be a possibility that this employee may be requested, or asked to give an exit interview. Now, what is actually the basis, what is actually the reason for this exit interview?..."

Verified W11Q6 · PDF p.38 · MCQ

Which of the following represents a possible sequence in the job interview process?

A. Screening of applications - Appraisal of CVs - Competency tasks - Psychological tests

B. Medical tests - CV appraisal - Screening - Group discussion

C. Negotiation - Screening - Competency tasks - Application

D. Group discussion - Application screening - Medical test - CV preparation

> Accepted answer: Screening of applications - Appraisal of CVs - Competency tasks - Psychological tests
> Selected response: Screening of applications - Appraisal of CVs - Competency tasks - Psychological tests (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 11 · L53 Interviews
> Concept: Job interview process
> Book support: Lecture 53, printed p.880 (PDF p.881): "...And then, so through screening they try to eliminate some of them even the other processes that through their CV, these CVs that are very attractive and that have some worth in it, are sent calls, but the remaining ones are left. Then even if this, after our CVs are examined then there are competency tests...."

Verified W11Q7 · PDF p.38 · MCQ

A candidate determines that job security, expertise, and material rewards strongly influence their career choices. This is part of understanding one's:

A. Personality

B. Motivation

C. Work culture

D. Leadership style

> Accepted answer: Motivation
> Selected response: Motivation (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 11 · L54 Planning and Preparation: Part-1
> Concept: Self-analysis for interviews
> Book support: Lecture 54, printed p.890 (PDF p.891): "...There are other considerations also; for example, some people would like that he should always be remembered for his administrative acumen, administrative capabilities, there are some people who have different sorts of motivation I mean there are some people who are only bothered about finance I should have a very good package i..."

Verified W11Q8 · PDF p.38 · MCQ

Which set contains factors that should be considered while analyzing a job position?

A. Responsibilities, special duties, challenges, and expert areas

B. Family background, hobbies, and personal interests

C. Salary history, friends, and social media activity

D. Dress, hairstyle, and interview posture

> Accepted answer: Responsibilities, special duties, challenges, and expert areas
> Selected response: Responsibilities, special duties, challenges, and expert areas (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 11 · L54 Planning and Preparation: Part-1
> Concept: Job analysis
> Book support: Lecture 54, printed p.890 (PDF p.891): "...You should concentrate well on that because that will become your own trademark that will become your own USP-- unique selling product and for that task, for that job you only will be called for. So, are you able to do that and again when we say analyze yourself you also have to think what do you value now this is a question wh..."

Verified W11Q9 · PDF p.38 · MCQ

Which statement best describes the primary purpose of a résumé?

A. To provide every detail about the candidate's personal and professional life

B. To create employer interest and generate an interview

C. To guarantee employment

D. To replace the interview process

Accepted answer: To create employer interest and generate an interview
Selected response: To create employer interest and generate an interview (score 1/1)
Week/Lecture: Week 11 · L55 Planning and Preparation: Part II
Concept: Purpose of a résumé
Book support: Lecture 55, printed p.904 (PDF p.905): "...Because the first elimination round for any selection is your resume and your main task is to get an interview call. Many resumes which are not properly drafted or which are not properly framed actually fail to create interest among the recruiters or organizations and hence even with the best capabilities that you have and if yo..."

Needs verification W11Q10 · PDF p.38 · MCQ

Which combination represents appropriate general résumé guidelines?

A. 8-point font, unlimited length, poor-quality paper

B. 10-12 point font, concise content, good-quality paper

C. 16-point font, lengthy descriptions, coloured paper

D. 6-point font, maximum possible information, handwritten format

Accepted answer: 10-12 point font, concise content, good-quality paper
Selected response: 10-12 point font, concise content, good-quality paper (score 1/1)
Week/Lecture: Week 11 · L55 Planning and Preparation: Part II
Concept: Résumé guidelines
Book support: Lecture 55, printed p.921 (PDF p.922): "...These slides the length should be 1 to 1.5 pages, 1.5. Moreover, use good quality papers because some in certain situations your resume has to be a scannable resume I mean 921..."
Note: The book says 1–1.5 pages and good-quality paper (Lecture 55) but gives no font size; 10–12 pt is general guidance.

Verified W11Q11 · PDF p.39 · True/False

Recording a presentation and seeking honest feedback from friends are both recommended ways of evaluating and improving one's presentation.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: True
> Selected response: True (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 11 · L51 Making Effective Presentations
> Concept: Evaluating presentations
> Book support: Lecture 51, printed p.839 (PDF p.840): "...Moreover, give some small presentations in some small groups with your friends and tell them to give you the honest feedback because that will help you. Now, comes the delivery part...."

Verified W11Q12 · PDF p.39 · True/False

The opening and closing of a speech are important because the beginning should leave a message memorable to the audience while the closing establishes intimacy.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: False
> Selected response: False (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 11 · L52 Speeches for Various Occasions
> Concept: Opening and closing a speech
> Book support: Lecture 52, printed p.856 (PDF p.857): "...Next is, when you close the speech, because I have said not only the beginning, but the closing is also important. And in the previous lecture on oral presentations, I have said that the closing has to be very effective, because the words which are uttered towards the end that actually leave a lasting impression on the mind of t..."

Verified W11Q13 · PDF p.39 · True/False

Recruiters are concerned only with whether a candidate gives correct answers.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: False
> Selected response: False (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 11 · L58 Facing Job Interviews: Part II
> Concept: What recruiters look for
> Book support: Lecture 58, printed p.977 (PDF p.978): "...I mean it is not only the correct answer, but then it is also the answer that takes into consideration the ethical segment, ethical aspects of an employee as well of an organization. Apart from these questions, I mean these were some of the questions which can be asked in the beginning and when you have satisfied them because yo..."

Verified W11Q14 · PDF p.39 · True/False

An entry-level résumé should generally be limited to about one and a half typed pages according to the lecture.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: True
> Selected response: True (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 11 · L55 Planning and Preparation: Part II
> Concept: Résumé length
> Book support: Lecture 55, printed p.916 (PDF p.917): "...So, the first thing again you will also will also be talking about the length of the resume, many people often think what should be the length especially for entry level people the length can only be 1 to 1.5 pages. It is not important that if you have a longer resume you will be considered more...."

Verified W11Q15 · PDF p.39 · True/False

Preparing an interview file means that only academic certificates need to be collected.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: False
> Selected response: False (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 11 · L54 Planning and Preparation: Part-1
> Concept: Interview file
> Book support: Lecture 54, printed p.899 (PDF p.900): "...So, we shall be discussing in the next lecture how to make a good resume, a resume that is saleable, but apart from resume you also should possess your other testimonials I mean your certificates degrees diplomas whatsoever in a proper order you try to give them an order and keep them up in an interview. For a file, it has been..."

Week 12 Assignment (PDF pp. 40–42, 15 questions)

Verified W12Q1 · PDF p.40 · MCQ

A candidate writes the objective: "A position allowing me to utilize my knowledge and expertise in different areas." What is the main problem with this objective?

A. It contains too many technical terms.

B. It is overly generalized.

C. It focuses too much on specific skills.

D. It is too closely related to the job.

> Accepted answer: It is overly generalized.
> Selected response: It is overly generalized. (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 12 · L56 Drafting an Effective Resume
> Concept: Career objective in a résumé
> Book support: Lecture 56, printed p.925 (PDF p.926): "...So, what happens if we feel that we have to have a job we apply and when you apply you actually mention something which is in a very generalized way and of course, you lose the chance because the recruiters are looking for specific skills. Suppose, if somebody says a position allowing me to utilize my knowledge in different area..."

Verified W12Q2 · PDF p.40 · MCQ

Why are action phrases useful in the employment experience section of a résumé?

A. They make the résumé unnecessarily detailed.

B. They highlight duties performed and help avoid understating qualifications.

C. They replace educational qualifications.

D. They provide contact information for references.

> Accepted answer: They highlight duties performed and help avoid understating qualifications.
> Selected response: They highlight duties performed and help avoid understating qualifications. (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 12 · L56 Drafting an Effective Resume
> Concept: Action phrases in a résumé
> Book support: Lecture 56, printed p.928 (PDF p.929): "...And then now comes certain other things which you possess more than other candidates because you are actually going to stand out from others only then your resume can be considered that is why somebody having the experience of or having a course which he undertook when he was in graduation he took a course in German in French...."

Verified W12Q3 · PDF p.40 · MCQ

Which combination represents factors that can bolster a candidate's confidence during an interview?

A. Appearance only

B. Vocal characteristics only

C. Mannerisms only

D. Appearance, vocal characteristics, and mannerisms

> Accepted answer: Appearance, vocal characteristics, and mannerisms
> Selected response: Appearance, vocal characteristics, and mannerisms (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 12 · L57 Facing Job Interviews: Part- I
> Concept: Confidence in interviews
> Book support: Lecture 57, printed p.951 (PDF p.952): "...Then comes the vocal characteristics, I mean when we talk about the vocal characteristics you have to ensure that you neither speak too loud nor speak too fast, you create a balance between your speed, rate, pitch behavior and the way you use your voice. So, your voice some way or the other reveals the sort of training that you..."

Verified W12Q4 · PDF p.40 · MCQ

A candidate maintains an audible and confident voice and uses appropriate intonation. Which aspect of interview performance is being demonstrated?

A. Vocal characteristics

B. Appearance

C. Clothing

D. Written communication

> Accepted answer: Vocal characteristics
> Selected response: Vocal characteristics (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 12 · L57 Facing Job Interviews: Part- I
> Concept: Vocal characteristics in interviews
> Book support: Lecture 57, printed p.951 (PDF p.952): "...Appearances can be deceptive and as I often say I often quote--- a false face must have a false heart within, but at least try to maintain a sort of expression on your face that can show, that can reflect that you are positive. Then comes the vocal characteristics, I mean when we talk about the vocal characteristics you have to..."

Verified W12Q5 · PDF p.40 · MCQ

An interviewer asks: "What would you do if a group of disgruntled employees wanted to damage company property because of their unfulfilled demands?" What type of question is this?

A. Closed question

B. Leading question

C. Hypothetical question

D. Reflective question

> Accepted answer: Hypothetical question
> Selected response: Hypothetical question (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 12 · L58 Facing Job Interviews: Part II
> Concept: Types of interview questions
> Book support: Lecture 58, printed p.974 (PDF p.975): "...Next come hypothetical questions. Now when we work in any organization, institute, company, whatsoever you may find the situations, keep on changing...."

Verified W12Q6 · PDF p.41 · MCQ

An interviewer asks, "Don't you think our company is the best as far as reputation is concerned?" Which type of question does this represent?

A. Open question

B. Leading question

C. Hypothetical question

D. Probing question

> Accepted answer: Leading question
> Selected response: Leading question (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 12 · L58 Facing Job Interviews: Part II
> Concept: Types of interview questions
> Book support: Lecture 58, printed p.977 (PDF p.978): "...Next question is----Do you think that the company should be free to retrench people in times of a market tumble? Now, this is a question which is of course a leading question, but then here the question of ethics is also concerned...."

Verified W12Q7 · PDF p.41 · MCQ

Which situation best demonstrates Emotional Intelligence?

A. Memorizing a large amount of academic information

B. Understanding one's emotions and managing them effectively while interacting with others

C. Solving a mathematical equation quickly

D. Recalling historical facts

> Accepted answer: Understanding one's emotions and managing them effectively while interacting with others
> Selected response: Understanding one's emotions and managing them effectively while interacting with others (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 12 · L59 Emotional Intelligence and Critical Thinking
> Concept: Emotional intelligence
> Book support: Lecture 59, printed p.991 (PDF p.992): "...So, emotional intelligence is a sort of ability or a sort of capacity to reorganize our feelings and also those of others. It does not talk only about our feelings, but it also talks about others feelings for motivating ourselves, and for managing emotions well in ourselves and in our relationships...."

Verified W12Q8 · PDF p.41 · MCQ

A person carefully observes a situation, asks relevant questions, examines relationships, and remains open to criticism. Which concept does this most directly demonstrate?

A. Critical Thinking

B. Self-regulation

C. Motivation

D. Social competence

> Accepted answer: Critical Thinking
> Selected response: Critical Thinking (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 12 · L59 Emotional Intelligence and Critical Thinking
> Concept: Critical thinking
> Book support: Lecture 59, printed p.994 (PDF p.995): "...Because you are there not only to see what people say, but you are also there to see how an improper line of thinking suddenly is brought to the notice of everyone. So, asking the relevant question and if you find there is some sort of fallacy in the statement, some sort of lapse in the statement you are there to guide, you are..."

Verified W12Q9 · PDF p.41 · MCQ

Which sentence correctly uses an indefinite pronoun with a singular verb?

A. Everyone in both offices were recommended for promotion.

B. Everyone in both offices was recommended for promotion.

C. Everyone in both offices have been recommended for promotion.

D. Everyone in both offices are recommended for promotion.

> Accepted answer: Everyone in both offices was recommended for promotion.
> Selected response: Everyone in both offices was recommended for promotion. (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 12 · L60 Applied Grammar
> Concept: Applied grammar: indefinite pronouns
> Book support: Lecture 60, printed p.1015 (PDF p.1016): "...each of the employees has to follow official norms; everyone in both offices was recommended for an escalation or for a promotion. 1015..."

Verified W12Q10 · PDF p.41 · MCQ

Which sentence is written in the passive voice?

A. Everyone knows about his tricks.

B. We expect good news.

C. The ministry has recommended his name for the award.

D. Your complaints will be heard in time.

> Accepted answer: Your complaints will be heard in time.
> Selected response: Your complaints will be heard in time. (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 12 · L60 Applied Grammar
> Concept: Applied grammar: passive voice
> Book support: Lecture 60, printed p.1008 (PDF p.1009): "...Some dresses such as breaches, pants, jeans, pyjamas, trousers are always plural and you will find at times people actually fail to understand and write trouser. Again, you also might have heard people saying; child is a singular and you know the plural is children, but many people even do not understand the fact that children i..."

Verified W12Q11 · PDF p.42 · True/False

A résumé should include the names and addresses of references so that employers can contact them immediately.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: False
> Selected response: False (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 12 · L55 Planning and Preparation: Part II, L56 Drafting an Effective Resume
> Concept: Résumé: references
> Book support: Lecture 56, printed p.945 (PDF p.946): "...Here he has not mentioned any referees because as per the format there was no scope, but then if it could have been there he could have written references on asked or to be provided, if asked and then he gives the personnel details where he mentions the exact date of birth, his name of father and all and the languages that he kn..."

Verified W12Q12 · PDF p.42 · True/False

Silence and pauses are included among the paralinguistic features that a candidate should be aware of during an interview.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: True
> Selected response: True (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 12 · L57 Facing Job Interviews: Part- I
> Concept: Paralanguage in interviews
> Book support: Lecture 57, printed p.963 (PDF p.964): "...discussed in our lecture on nonverbal communication or communicating without words but see to it that when you speak you are going to situate both silence and pauses. Sometimes you will find that when you answer to a particular question, there is a pause that may make you irk, that may actually irritate you, but remember they ar..."

Verified W12Q13 · PDF p.42 · True/False

Questions concerning a candidate's strengths and weaknesses may arise during an interview.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: True
> Selected response: True (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 12 · L58 Facing Job Interviews: Part II
> Concept: Common interview questions
> Book support: Lecture 58, printed p.980 (PDF p.981): "...You talk about a strength that you have. If they asked you a question about weakness, present your weaknesses in such a manner that even weakness becomes a merit...."

Verified W12Q14 · PDF p.42 · True/False

Conflict management, leadership, communication, and collaboration are not examples of social skills.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: False
> Selected response: False (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 12 · L59 Emotional Intelligence and Critical Thinking
> Concept: Social skills (emotional intelligence)
> Book support: Lecture 59, printed p.1002 (PDF p.1003): "...Because conflict at times arises at the workplace and you have to mitigate the conflict add that is possible only when you can understand and you can listen to the views of furthers for that you need to have a good listening skills, which you already might have developed over the years and you are also going to develop once you..."

Verified W12Q15 · PDF p.42 · True/False

Words ending in -s, such as politics and physics, always require plural verbs.

A. True

B. False

> Accepted answer: False
> Selected response: False (score 1/1)
> Week/Lecture: Week 12 · L60 Applied Grammar
> Concept: Applied grammar: subject-verb agreement
> Book support: Lecture 60, printed p.1009 (PDF p.1010): "...Again you will find that people often use the word politics; politics it also has s and sometimes you must not believe that since it is s; ending in s politics ending in s, it should be plural no politics is an interesting game for leaders. So, politics again many subjects you will find mathematics, physics, fine; so, all these..."